NO IMMEDIATE BREAK WITH MEXICO

CARRANZA YIELDS TO DEMAND RELEASES U. S. PRISONERS

Tension is Greatly Lessened, Although the All-Important Question is the Mexican Government's Attitude Towards the American Expeditionary Force Across the Border—Carranza's Reply to Note Has Not Yet Been Received.

GENERAL BELL, AT EL PASO, NOTIFIED BY MEXICAN CONSUL GARCIA THAT PRISONERS ARE ON WAY NORTH

They Will Probably Arrive at Juarez Today and be Delivered at Once to the American Authorities—Preparations of United States for War Will Go Steadily Forward—Powerful Influences Have Brought Pressure on Carranza.

San Antonio, Texas, June 28. — General Funston received tonight a report from Brigadier General Bell at El Paso which stated General Bell had been notified by Mexican Consul Garcia that the American prisoners taken at Carrizal now are on the way north to Juarez, and probably would arrive there tomorrow morning.

According to the report, Mr. Garcia had received word from General Jacinto Trevino that the American prisoners with their arms and accouterments were to be delivered at once to the American authorities. The report was forwarded at once to Washington by General Funston.

There were no indications at headquarters that General Trevino's order for the liberation of the prisoners would affect in any way the movement of National Guardsmen toward the border.

COMPLIANCE BY CARRANZA AVERTS IMMEDIATE BREAK.

Washington, June 28.—An immediate break between the United States and Mexico has been averted by compliance with the American demand for the release of 23 troopers captured in the fight at Carrizal. Whether war has been prevented or merely postponed no one here would attempt to say tonight.

Official information as to the attitude of General Carranza was lacking. Until his response to Secretary Lansing's note, dispatched Sunday, making two peremptory and distinct demands, is received, there will be no decision on whether President Wilson shall lay the crisis before Congress.

Officials Relieved.

News of the release of the prisoners, received early tonight in press dispatches, brought undisguised relief to high officials. It was accepted as correct and assured that Carranza, impressed with the urgency of the situation, had ordered that the cavalrymen be started for the border without waiting for his reply to reach Washington.

While it generally is conceded that this move lessens tension and makes the crisis less imminent, no one conversant with the grave problem lost sight of the fact that the all-important question is Carranza's attitude toward the American expedition across the border to protect the territory and citizens of the United States from bandit outrages. If the de facto government stands upon the order to General Trevino to attack Pershing's men when they move otherwise than toward the border, the situation actually is just what it was before, except that there now is a possibility of diplomatic negotiation that did not exist while the Americans were held prisoner at Chihuahua.

War Preparations Continue.

The preparations of the United States for war will go steadily forward. There will be no interruption of the rush of the National Guardsmen to the border and General Funston will continue disposing of his forces as though he expected an immediate attack.

Carranza's compliance with one of the demands is accepted by the more optimistic officials here as an indication that he is striving to prevent a break. Even though he should again attempt to throw all blame upon his right to forcibly oppose any except northward movements of American troops, it is thought possible that he will state his position in such a way as to make further discussion necessary.

During any negotiations, however, the United States will insist upon freedom of movement of the troops in Mexico, and any attempt to interfere with them will be met by such force as is necessary.

The possibility of Latin-American offers of mediation in the crisis again was widely discussed. Ignacio Calderon, minister from Bolivia, will make a second call upon Secretary Lansing tomorrow to ascertain whether a tender of good offices by the South and Central American republics would be entertained at this time.

Pressure on Carranza.

It is known that powerful influences have been brought to bear on Carranza in the past few days to make him turn over the American prisoners. Prominent Mexicans in the United States as well as American bankers and business interests with influence in Mexican affairs have flooded the first chief with messages. They all sent him the same warning that to hold the prisoners would mean war.

Secretary Baker waited at the War Department until late tonight for a report from General Funston on General Trevino's announcement that he had sent the cavalrymen to Juarez to be set free. He finally went home without the report.

President Wilson now expects to fill an engagement which he almost had decided to cancel, to address the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World in convention at Philadelphia tomorrow afternoon. Unless the note from Carranza, which should arrive early tomorrow, is of such a nature as to change his plans, he will leave for Philadelphia at noon.

The last word from Special Agent Rodgers, at Mexico City, a message dated yesterday and received early today, said he expected to be handed the note today. He gave no intimation of what might be its contents.

Arredondo Submits Protest.

Secretary Lansing had not studied today the trio of communications submitted to the department within the last 24 hours by Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate. They protest against the alleged actions of a large column of General Pershing's men toward Mexican citizens, against the arrest of other Mexicans in the United States and against the general embargo effected without permission, stopping virtually all shipments to Mexico.

The protests are being treated as routine matters in the State Department. Two of them, relating to alleged improper treatment of Mexican citizens, require reports from army officers or from Federal civil authorities in California and Arizona before any answer can be made.

The protest dealing with the embargo situation probably could be quickly disposed of. In its note last Sunday, the Washington government informed General Carranza that it construed as deliberately hostile his orders to General Trevino to limit by force the operations of General Pershing's men. A formal repudiation of this attitude has been required of the de facto government. If any reply were made to Mr. Arredondo pending the receipt of some reply to that demand, undoubtedly it would be pointed out that the United States government is not disposed to furnish supplies to a potential enemy.

Mexican Boy Reported Beaten.

Mr. Arredondo said tonight he would call attention of the State Department to a report just received from the Mexican consul at El Paso that a Mexican boy, accompanied by his father on a train bound from Douglas, Ariz., to El Paso, had been beaten into insensibility yesterday by two American soldiers and two civilians who boarded the train at Hachita, N. M. The consul reported the boy had a toy pistol which excited suspicion. The ambassador also let it be known that he had asked his government for information concerning a report that American troops had crossed the border pursuing bandits near Hachita yesterday.

Mr. Arredondo's note that American troops had mistreated a large number of Mexican citizens will be submitted to General Funston so that a report from General Pershing may be obtained.

Department Almost Swamped.

The War Department was almost swamped today by the accumulating detailed work of getting 100,000 National Guardsmen equipped and to the border in the shortest possible time. Reports to the quartermaster general showed that the railroads were meeting the unusual strain upon their facilities in a wholly satisfactory manner. Troop, supply and stock trains are rushing southward over every available line and a flood of railroad equipment is converging on the border distribution points. Traffic experts of all lines involved are toiling night and day with army officials to see that no serious delay occurs.

From manufacturers also satisfactory co-operation is being received, army officials report. Secretary Baker made public a statement from his supply division chiefs that every need of

American Note Requests Punishment of U-Boat Commander and Payment of Indemnity.

VIGOROUS LANGUAGE USED

Made Clear That United States Does Not Believe Austrian Version of Incident.

Washington, June 28.—The American rejoinder to Austria regarding the Austrian submarine attack on the American steamer Petrolite, made public today, describes the act as "a deliberate insult to the flag of the United States and an invasion of the rights of American citizens" and requests a prompt apology, punishment of the submarine commander and payment of indemnity.

In vigorous language the communication, sent a week ago today, makes it clear that the United States believes the facts of the case entirely different from what the Austrian submarine commander reported them to be and that immediate amends are expected.

Flat Contradiction.

The Austrian claim that the Petrolite's captain voluntarily gave up supplies taken from the steamer by the submarine commander is flatly contradicted, as are the claims that warning shots were fired across the Petrolite's bow before she was shelled and that her appearance was such as to justify the submarine commander in mistaking her for a cruiser.

The attack on the Petrolite, a Standard Oil tanker, occurred in the Mediterranean December 5th. A protest sent soon afterward on preliminary reports from the tanker's captain and crew brought the Austrian communication to which the new American note replies.

The note, which is in the form of a memorandum from Secretary Lansing to Ambassador Penfield, at Vienna, says the following information has been obtained from sworn statements of the captain of the Petrolite and members of the crew:

No Warning Shot Across Bow.

"No shot was fired across the bow of the steamer as a signal to stop. When the first shot was fired the captain was under the impression that an explosion had taken place in the engine room. Not until the second shot was fired did the captain and crew sight the submarine which was astern of the steamer and therefore they positively assert that neither the first nor the second shot was fired across the bow of the vessel.

"The steamer did not swing around in a course directed toward the submarine as alleged in the report obtained by the Austro-Hungarian government, but the captain at once stopped the engines and swung the vessel broadside to the submarine and at right angles to the course of the vessel in order to show its neutral markings, which was manifestly the reasonable and proper course to follow, and it ceased to make any headway. On the steamer was

STATE TROOPS OF SOUTH VIRTUALLY ARE ALL IN CAMP

Last of the North Carolina Guardsmen Will Arrive at Morehead City Saturday.

20,000 SOLDIERS MOBILIZED

Recruiting Goes Steadily On—Expected Full War Strength Will Go to the Border.

New York, June 28.—Mobilization of the National Guard of the Southern states called out for Mexican service virtually was complete tonight, according to information at headquarters, Department of the East, United States Army, here. All the units called in Virginia, South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and Louisiana were in camp, whil ethe last of the Georgia troops were expected at Macon tomorrow and of the North Carolina troops at Morehead City Saturday.

Approximately 20,000 soldiers, including infantry, cavalry, field artillery and signal and hospital corps, were under canvas at the nine state camps and several thousand of these were about ready to move to the border, part of the Virginia and Florida troops being expected to get away within a day or two. Plans were for all the others to move as soon as they were ready and troop trains were being assembled at several of the camps.

Recruiting stations have been opened in all of the states and the work of filling in the various units to war strength was progressing rapidly. In several states the governors have issued calls for volunteers and recruits are being moved to the mobilization camps almost daily.

It was expected that when the troops get away for the border most units would be near the maximum strength in spite of the number of Guardsmen rejected for inability to pass the medical examination.

CAVALRY REGIMENT OF 12 TROOPS IS BEING ORGANIZED

Roanoke, Va., June 28. — A cavalry regiment of twelve troops is being organized in Virginia for possible service on the Mexican border by Colonel R. Kent Spiller, of this city, a former first lieutenant in the United States ary. Colonel Spiller has received messages from practically every section in the commonwealth from persons anxious to become members. Troops already are being organized in nine Virginia cities.

VIRGINIA HAS MUSTERED IN TWO THOUSAND GUARDSMEN

Richmond, June 28.—The first and second regiments of infantry, signal corps, one battalion of artillery, one squadron of cavalry and a field hospital division are in cam phere. All are in readiness to move to the border with the exception of the cavalry. Two thousend men already have been mus-

MUCH DISCUSSION BY THE LAWYERS OVER THE CHANGES

Recommended to Bar Association by Committee on Legislation and Law Reform.

TWO SPLENDID ADDRESSES

Convention at Wrightsville Beach Adjourns Today After Election of Officers.

Discussion of the report of the committee on legislation and law reform and addresses by Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Winston-Salem, and Hon. Walter George Smith, of Philadelphia, occupied the attention of the North Carolina Bar Association on the second day of its annual convention at the Seashore Hotel at Wrightsville Beach. Following the address by Mr. Smith on "Uniform Commercial Laws" last night, the reports of the special committee, appointed at the last convention of the association, was presented by Judge W. P. Bynum, of Greensboro, and after some discussion went over until today for further consideration.

Mr. Smith's address last night was a comprehensive outline of growth and development of commercial law in England and this country, and the underlying principles of some of the present day laws which it is sought to make of more general usage. The address by Mr. Buxton yesterday morning was an eloquent plea for upholding the dignity and purity of the courts and for higher ideals for the profession of law. He condemned the increase of practices which he felt tend to commercialize the profession, and thought that the association ought to take some stand against them. He urged that a higher standard of admission to the profession should be maintained.

Convention Closes Today.

The convention will come to a close with the session this morning which will be featured by an address by Hon. W. N. Bond, Superior Court judge of the First Judicial District, which will be followed by the consideration of unfinished business and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

While the attendance this year has not been so large as at some of the other conventions, owing to the fact that courts held in several sections kept a number from coming while the ers away, there has been no lack of iners away, there has been no lack of interest in the questions that have been discussed. The visiting attorneys are being entertained in fine style by Capt. Edgar Hinton and his corps of assistants.

One of the very pleasant features yesterday followed the strenuous discussion that had taken place over some of the provisions in the report of the committee on legislation and law reform, practically all of which were finally adopted, was an oyster roast at Lumina, given by members of the Wilmington Bar Association. The luscious

AUSTRIANS IN REGION OF TRENTINO FORCED STILL FURTHER BACK

ATTORNEY FOR SIR ROGER COLLAPSES

Sergeant Sullivan, While in Midst of Heated Outburst, Gives Way Under the Strain.

DEFENDED CASEMENT'S ACT

Prisoner in Statement Indicates He Had Nothing to Do With Irish Revolt—Says It Was Not Inspired in Germany.

London, June 28.—A day filled with sensational incidents at the trial of Sir Roger Casement for treason was brought to a sudden and dramatic close late this afternoon when Sergeant Sullivan, Sir Roger's leading attorney, collapsed in the midst of an impassioned summing up. Mr. Sullivan, who himself is an Irishman, was painting a picture of the wrongs he declared were suffered by Ireland and maintaining that the prisoner had committed no treason when he attempted to raise an Irish brigade in Germany for the purpose of protecting the rights of the people of Ireland against "unlawful tyranny."

It was during one of his most heated outbursts that the speaker suddenly paused, swayed heavily against the bench and then collapsed into a seat.

Just previously, the chief justice had cautioned the attorney that he must keep to the evidence in his argument, the justice adding that he had with difficulty restrained himself from interrupting the attorney at several other points in his speech. Mr. Sullivan apologized and proceeded, but the strain under which he was laboring proved too much.

Motion to Quash Overruled.

Earlier in the day the justices had overruled the motion of the defense to quash the indictment on the ground that the statute under which it was drawn did not provide for the trial of a man who committed treason outside the realm. This was admittedly the prisoner's main defense. It was announced that no witness would be produced in his behalf, mainly because such witnesses must be secured in Germany and this was not permitted.

With the failure of this move, Sir Roger himself was called upon to make a statement to the jury. This statement, which was not given under oath and consequently permitted of no cross examination, was a flat denial that the knight had worked in the interests of Germany or that he had accepted German gold as a bribe.

"I have never sold myself to any man or any government to use me," he declared, in a voice vibrating with emotion. He indicated that he had had nothing to do with the Sinn Fein rebellion and asserted that this rebellion was not inspired or directed from Germany. In conclusion, he declared that he touched on these personal matters because they were intended to tarnish the cause he held so dear.

Mr. Sullivan in his speech stated that Sir Roger was charged with aiding Germany, and he declared that not an atom of assistance had been rendered the enemy. Sir Roger had asked men to enlist in the Irish brigade when the war was over and the seas clear, said the attorney. These men were to fight for the cause of Irish Home Rule. He told of armed bodies which were operating in Ireland before the war and declared that Ireland was being bullied by these men and that the civil government had afforded no protection.

As the attorney proceeded he leaned forward and pounded a desk as if to challenge those present to dispute his words, and there was an uneasy shift-

Italians Make Gains Along Almost Entire Front—French Gain Northeast of Verdun.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE HALTED

They Have Lost Some Ground to Germans in Volhynia—Austrians Also Check Drive.

BRITISH SCORE SUCCESSES

Number of Successful Raids Against German Positions.

Gains of additional ground by the Italians from the Austrians, by the French from the Germans northeast of Verdun, and by the Germans from the Russians in Volhynia, are chronicled in the latest communication issued by the Italian, French and Austrian war offices. In addition, it is stated that the Austrians are still holding back the wing of the Russian army which is endeavoring to drive past Kuty, Bukowina, with Kolomea as its objective.

French and Italian Gains.

In the Trentino region the Italians continue to force back the Austrians along almost the entire front, having made progress at various points in the region between the Adige and Brenta rivers, in the Lagarina and Arsa valleys, between the Posina and Astico rivers, and along the upper But river. Northeast of Verdun the French have recaptured more ground from the Germans, north of hill 321 and around the Thiaumont work. Northeast of Verdun the Germans carried out a heavy bombardment against the Avocourt and Chattancourt sectors but were prohibited from any infantry attack by the effectiveness of the French artillery fire. In Champagne the Germans occupied French positions near Tahure, but later were driven out.

Successes for British.

On the British front the expected big offensive by King George's men apparently has not yet begun, but they are carrying out at various points successful raids on German positions and bombarding heavily from the region of LaBassee Canal to the south of the Somme. In the latter region small British attacks were put down by the Germans, according to Berlin.

Continuing their counter offensive against the Russians in Volhynia the Germans have captured the village of Linewka, to the west of Sokul, and also have taken by storm positions to the south of the village. Vienna reports that further Russian attacks near Kuty in Bukowina have been repulsed by the Austrian forces.

Between the Vardar river and Lake Doiran on the Greek-Serbian border artillery duels are taking place.

The United States government in a memorandum sent to Vienna describes the attack on the American tank steamer Petrolite by an Austrian submarine as a deliberate insult to the flag of the United States and an invasion of rights of American citizens, and demands a prompt apology, punishment of the submarine commander and the payment of indemnity.

A sentence of two years and six months penal servitude ad dismissal from the army has been imposed by court martial on Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the German socialist, for attempted high treason and resistance to the authorities.

CAROLINA GUARDSMEN READY FOR ANYWHERE

Governor Craig So Telegraphs President Wilson.

"Regardless of the Technical Provisions of the Army Reorganization Bill," They'll Answer President's Call.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 28.—"The National Guard of North Carolina is ready to obey the orders of the President of the United States and volunteers to go into Mexico or elsewhere as they may be ordered regardless of the technical provisions of the Army Reorganization bill."

Thus reads a telegram sent to President Wilson today by Governor Craig.

It was sent, the Governor says, for the reason that some members of Congress are making the point that the President has no right to send the soldiers into Mexico.

He says that every man of the North Carolina Guard, from brigadier commander to the private in the ranks, is ready to sign any enlistment volunteering his services to the United States anywhere and at any time.

Governor Craig said tonight that he is anxious to leave Raleigh for the mountains and as soon as the soldiers are mustered into the Federal service he will go to Asheville. This would be the first of next week. He will leave for Morehead about the last of the week to give the soldiers a word of encouragement before they depart for Mexico and then he will go to the mountains to spend some time.

DOMINICAN REBELS IN BATTLE WITH MARINES

One American Soldier is Killed and Another Wounded.

Rebels Had Entrenched in Two Lines of Trenches in Strong Natural Position—Were Dislodged by the Americans.

Washington, June 28.—One American soldier was killed and another wounded in an engagement reported today by Rear Admiral Caperton between United States marines and Santo Domingo rebels. The rebel losses were not given.

The name of the marine killed was given as Private John Acriment, of the 27th company. His name does not appear in Navy Department records. Albert Vieldaum, of Aberdeen, Wash., a private of the 27th was wounded. Admiral Caperton's report said the engagement was fought yesterday morning. 'The rebels were entrenched in a strong natural position in two lines of trenches about sixteen miles from Monte Cristi. They were dislodged by assault after an artillery fire. A report reached the Navy Department earlier in the day from Admiral Caperton saying that Colonel Pendleton, with a considerable force of marines, were marching eighty miles overland from Puerto Plata to occupy Santiago and Le Vega.

HUGHES AND COLONEL 'IN COMPLETE ACCORD'

They Dine Together and Have a Lengthy Conversation.

It is Understood the Colonel Will Make Some Campaign Speeches in the Nominee's Behalf During the Campaign.

New York, June 28.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, announces tonight at the end of an interview with Theodore Roosevelt, which lasted for more than two hours and a half, that he and the former were "in complete accord." Mr. Hughes issued the following statement: "I am very much pleased with Colonel Roosevelt's letter of endorsement ,and he has expressed himself in a very kindly way with respect to my telegram to the Progressive party. I wanted to talk to Colonel Roosevelt fully and asked him to dine with me so that we might have that opportunity. He dined with me tonight, and we held a very delightful interview. We talked very fully over all matters and are in complete accord. The evening has been a very pleasant one."

It is understood that Colonel Roosevelt told Mr. Hughes he would co-operate heartily with him in any of his plans, even to the extent of making a speaking tour if Mr. Hughes so desired.

Colonel Roosevelt called upon Mr. Hughes at the nominee's invitation and Adjourned at 5:43 P. M. until noon Thursday.

NO HOUR PASSES WITHOUT ATTACK ON RUSSIAN FRONT.

London, June 28.—A Lutsk dispatch to The Times, dated Tuesday, describes the terrible fighting on the Russian front.

"This town," says the correspondent, "is a veritable maelstrom of war. From not many miles away by night and day comes the almost uninterrupted roar of heavy gun fire, and all day long the main street is filled with the clatter of caissons, guns and transports going forward on one side while on the opposite side is an unending line of empty caissons returning, mingled with wounded in every conceivable form of vehicle. And among these at break neck speed dart motorcycles carrying dispatches.

"Along the entire front the contending armies are locked in a fierce and ceaseless struggle. No hour passes when there is not somewhere an attack or counter attack going forward with bitterness and ferocity. The troops coming from Germany are rendering the Russian advance difficult and the general nature of the fighting is defense by vigorous counter attacks.

"The inhabitants of Lutsk report that the enemy forces stated they expected to return within a few weeks."

TAUSCHER INNOCENT OF VON PAPEN'S PURPOSES

Counsel Asserts He Wanted to Commit No Wrong in America.

Von Der Goltz Denounced as a "Despicable Scoundrel"—Men of English Birth Testify in Behalf of Tauscher.

New York, June 28. — That Captain Hans Tauscher, former German army officer, on trial here charged with complicity in the alleged plot to blow up the Welland canal in September, 1914, was made the innocent tool of Captain Franz Von Papen, recalled German military attache, in the latter's "foolish desire to serve his country," was the gist of the defense outlined by Tauscher's counsel, Herbert C. Smyth, today. It is expected Tauscher will go on the witness stand in his own behalf tomorrow.

Horst Von Der Goltz, upon whose confession Tauscher, Wolf Von Igel, and others were indicted, was denounced by Tauscher's lawyer as a "despicable scoundrel." At the outbreak of the European war, Mr. Smyth said, Tauscher, who was in Germany, volunteered his services to his country, although past the age limit. He was told to come to New York and report to Von Papen.

"I will be glad to do all I can for my country," Mr. Smyth quoted Tauscher as saying to Von Papen, "but I ask you to give me your word as a gentleman and a German that you will not ask me to do anything against the laws of this country or what would be unfriendly to the people of this country, among whom I am making my home and my livelihood."

Mr. Smyth asserted Von Papen told Tauscher that one Bridgeman Taylor (Von Der Goltz) "would call for dynamite," and Tauscher, "relying on Von Papen's word as a gentleman and a German, believed it to be an innocent transaction."

The DuPonts, who furnished the dynamite, the lawyer contended, were "just as guilty of conspiracy as Tauscher." He added, however, that the DuPonts believed the request legitimate, as did Tauscher.

Von Papen also arranged for the delivery in Hoboken, N. J., of a number of pistols, the attorney continued, "and Tauscher relied on the good faith of his superior and obeyed with soldier-like loyalty."

they remained together for more than two and a half hours.

The Republican nominee and Colonel Roosevelt dined alone. The waiter who served them was barred from the room except when specially summoned by a call button.

After the interview Mr. Hughes emerged with Colonel Roosevelt escorting the former President to his automobile and warmly shaking his hand as he bade him good bye. When the automobile moved away Colonel Roosevelt looked around and, waving his hand to Mr. Hughes, said, "Goodbye and the best possible luck."

Colonel Roosevelt when seen later before his departure for his home at Oyster Bay, said that he and Mr. Hughes had had a most satisfactory talk and that he was really greatly pleased. The former President made it plain that he agrees with the attitude Mr. Hughes has taken toward the questions at issue in the campaign and he assured the nominee that he would support him with the utmost heartiness.

Colonel Roosevelt said that Mr. Hughes stated he much desired the Colonel to aid in the campaign and it was agreed that in the fall Colonel Roosevelt should make three or four speeches for Mr. Hughes.

Former President Taft said tonight that he was willing to work side by side with Colonel Roosevelt to aid in the election of Mr. Hughes. Asked if he would be willing to speak from the same platform as Colonel Roosevelt, he said:

"I am for Hughes. I would not let my personal feelings interfere. If such speaking arrangements were made I would act as a privat ein the ranks and obey orders."

PARKER REFUSES TO TALK ABOUT CHICAGO MEETING

New Orleans, June 28. — John M. Parker, Progressive nominee for Vice-President, returned to his home here tonight. Mr. Parker would not discuss the recent meeting of the National Committee of the Progressive party in Chicago.

When asked if he would consider affiliation with the Prohibitionists, Mr. Parker said: "I am not a Prohibitionist; I am a local optionist."

INDIANA PROGRESSIVE ARE EAGER TO NAME CANDIDATE

Indianapolis, June 28.—The Indiana Progressive convention this evening instructed William Holton Dye, National committeeman from Indiana, to communicate with the central committees of other states and start a movement for calling another national convention of the party to name a presidential candidate. The action was taken after a stormy session in which personal conflicts were imminent and Mr. Dye was censured for voting to endorse Charles E. Hughes for President Monday at Chicago. The Indiana Progressives refused this action. An unsuccessful effort was made to unseat Mr. Dye as National committeeman from Indiana.

REFUSE TO ENDORSE CHAS. E. HUGHES FOR PRESIDENT.

New York, June 28.—A resolution endorsing Chas. E. Hughes for President was defeated at a meeting of the Kings county committee of the Progressive party in Brooklyn tonight. A sub-resolution was passed recommending that the members of the party exercise their individual judgment in supporting a candidate. Bainbridge Colby, who nominated Colonel Roosevelt at the Progressive convention in Chicago, criticised him for declining the nomination.

DR. KARL LIEBKNECHT SENTENCED IN BERLIN

Tried for Attempted High Treason and Other Charges.

Given Thirty Months Penal Servitude, the Lowest Penalty That Could Be Imposed—Is Also Dismissed From the Army.

Berlin, June 28, (via Amsterdam to London).—Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the socialist leader, was sentenced to 30 months' penal servitude and dismissal from the army for attempted high treason, gross insubordination and resistance to the authorities.

The court decided that Dr. Liebknecht was guided by political fanaticism and not by unpatriotic feeling, and therefore imposed the lowest penalty on him. The charge against him was attempted treason during war time and resistance of the authorities.

The trial was held behind closed doors, "in the interest of public security." It was ordered that newspapers should print no reports of the trial except the verdict, which would be made public.

Dr. Liebknecht, whose criticisms of the government in speeches in the reichstag previously had led to his expulsion from the Socialist party in that body, was arrested on May 1 during the demonstration and since has been held in custody, the reichstag having on May 11, by a vote of 229 to 111, declined to order his release. He has been accused of not only taking part in but of arranging the demonstration, at which it is alleged cries of "Down with the war" and "Down with the Kaiser" were raised by the excited demonstrators. A report on his arrest made to the reichstag contained these charges, and in detailing the circumstances of the incident asserted that he resisted the police but finally was knocked down and overpowered.

Parliamentary immunity for Dr. Liebknecht was claimed, but not allowed. It was announced he had denied that he was guilty of treason, but had admitted taking part in the demonstration. It was at first understood that he was to be brought before a court-martial—being a soldier as well as a legislator—on the charge of high treason, conviction on which would have carried with it the death penalty, bu trecently it was published that the accusation had been modified to attempted treason in war time, the maximum penalty for which is 15 years penal servitude.

Four Berlin newspapers published the following from the semi-official Wolff bureau:

"In the course of a demonstration last evening for Deputy Liebknecht, a rather large crowd collected at Postdamer platz (Berlin). Some 20 persons were taken into custody to establish their identity. There were no further incidents."

the National Guard as to clothing, equipage and food was being met.

Huge shipments are being hurried to the state mobilization points in addition to those rushed to the border in preparation for the mobilization along that 1,800 mile line of the largest American army gathered in such narrow compass since the close of the war of the rebellion.

From the arsenals, trains laden with implements of war, rifles, artillery and ammunition, are moving swiftly. Orders for additional machine guns have been placed, making certain an adequate supply of these valuable weapons.

THE 23 SOLDIERS AND MORMON SCOUT ON THE WAY TO JUAREZ

El Paso, June 28.—President Wilson's peremptory demand on General Carranza for the release of the American prisoners held in Chihuahua penitentiary today met with compliance.

Late this afternoon it was announced from the commandancia in Juarez that a message had been transmitted over the Mexican telegraph which stated that the twenty-three negroes of the Tenth cavalry, captured at Carrizal, with Lem H. Spillsbury, Mormon scout, had been removed from prison.

The message added that the men, with their arms and accoutrements, under heavy guard, had been placed on a Mexican Central train bound for Juarez, where they are expected to arrive tomorrow morning.

The telegram conveying this news was addressed tomorrow morning.

The telegram conveying this news was addressed to General George Bell, Jr., commander of the El Paso base. It was signed by General Jacinto Trevino, commander of the Mexican military district of the northeast whose headquarters are at Chihuahua City.

General Bell, in keeping with his custom of maintaining close secrecy regarding all military developments, refused to say whether h ehad received the message. He said that all announcements must come from General Funston at San Anonio.

On receipt of word that General Funston had given out the contents of th message he said no escort would be sent to meet the prisoners in the morning, but an officer would be delegated to take command of them and lead them to Fort Bliss.

Mexican officials tonight were happy over the turn in events. They said this would mean a lessening of the tension of the last few days. General Francisco Gonzales, Juarez commander, and Andres Garcia, Mexican Consul at El Paso, each said he regarded the incident as reassuring.

"This shows that we don't want war unless it is forced upon us," Mr. Garcia said.

BODY OF GENERAL FELIX GOMEZ RECEIVED WITH HONOR

Mexico City, June 28.—The body of General Felix Gomez, who was in command of the Mexicans in the battle with the American troops near Carrizal, was received with honors at Saltillo, a public manifestation of regret being held. The interment was at Gomez Farias, his birthplace.

El Centro Mexicano, a self-styled "Americanist International Association," commemorated today the ninetieth anniversary of the constitution of the Pan-Americanist Congress, convened by Simon Bolivar in June, 1826. A certain importance is attached to this celebration in view of the present American-Mexican crisis.

General Marcelo Caraveo has arrived at Chihuahua ,from the United States. Notwithstanding that he is antagonistic to the present governmen he has availed himself of he law of amnesty, recently proclaimed by Carranza and has offered his services to the country.

HUBBARD SAYS HIS DAUGHTER GAINED 6 LBS. ON TANLAC

South Ninth Street Father Gladly Tells What Single Bottle of Master Medicine Has Done For His Child.

"There is no other medicine to my knowledge that is doing so much good for run-down people as Tanlac, and I can truthfully say it has accomplished wonders for my daughter, who has gained six pounds from but one bottle of it to say nothing of the relief she has gained from nervousness and extreme debility," explained G. L. Hubbard, of 110 South Ninth street, this city, to the Tanlac Man.

In beginning his story, Mr. Hubbard said: "My daughter suffered terribly from general nervousness, extreme debility and weakness. Her sleep was irregular and as she continued in this state she fell off in weight.

"We learned how Tanlac was doing so much good for other people right here in this city, and started my daughter on it. She has just finished her first bottle and the scales show an increase of six pounds in her weight. She is feeling stronger generally and better than for a long time, and is not near as nervous as she has been."

Daily men and women call at the Bellamy Drug Store and tell the Tanlac Man how the Master Medicine has offered them relief from nervousness, run-down and weakened conditions, constipation and indigestion, kidney and liver derangements, headaches, sluggishness and loss of energy, sleeplessness and loss of appetite. Tanlac is an herbal remedy and was designed especially to combat modern maladies by going to the root of trouble and, after banishing congested impurities, build health and strength through the blood and nerves.

C. L. Halstead sells Tanlac in Burgaw; A. N. Rhodes & Co., Rocky Point; J. L. Southall, Magnolia; Watson's Pharmacy, Southport; G. W. Kirby, Supply; Bradham Drug Co., in New Bern. Each town has a Tanlac druggist.

tered in and this number probably will be raised to 8,550 by tomorrow. The percentage of rejections has been heavy and recruiting is proceeding actively throughout the state. No orders have been received which would indicate the probable time of entraining for the border.

TO COMPLETE MOBILIZATION AT CAMP GLENN BY SATURDAY

Raleigh, N. C., June 28.—The second regiment of the North Carolina National Guard is arriving at Camp Glenn, near Morehead City, tonight and the third regiment is to mobilize there Saturday, with the expectation of 2,500 men in the two regiments.

The first regiment, which reached Camp Glenn last Sunday, has not yet been entirel ymustered in the examination of the men still going on, with three companies yet to be examined. The reports indicate a loss of about 20 per cent. on examination rejections, and that there are now about a thousand men of that regiment in camp. It is expected to have that regiment ready to entrain for the border within four days.

PHYSICAL EXAMINTION OF SOUTH CAROLINA TROOPS BEGUN

Columbia, S. C., June 28.—Physical examination of South Carolina's militia called upon for border service began today and while no orders have been received for the troops to go to the border, efforts are being made to drill and equip the large number of recruits, as well as to bring the different units up to full war strength. This state was called upon for two regiments of infantry and one troop of cavalry, all of which is mobilized here, making some 2,300 men. It is not known here when they will be ready to leave.

NEW TURN IN ORDERS FROM WAR DEPARTMENT

Guard Companies to Muster Only Up to Minimum War Strength.

Regular Army Standards of Physical Examination Being Applied at Camp Glenn—Oil Portrait Presentation.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 28.—General Laurence W. Young, commanding the brigade of North Carolina National Guard being mustered into service for the Mexican border, says that it developes that the officers of the various companies will only muster in additional men until the minimum war strength of 65 men is attained and that then the further enlistments to full war strength are to come through the regular recruiting stations of the United States Army.

In consequence of this turn in the orders from the War Department, it will not be necessary for any company to leave any of its officers behind at the home station for further enlistments, except in cases where the orders to move to mobilization camp came before the requisite minimum number of acceptable enlistments are attained.

General Young wants it understood that the standards of physical examinations that are being applied in the examination of the recruits are the regular army standards and that they are being rigidly applied and all who do not conform to the requirements are being rejected. General Young says that the vaccinations against typhoid that are being administered to all officers and men as fast as they are mustered in are regarded as most necessary.

To Present Portrait.

An oil portrait of the late Charles L. Hinton, who was State treasurer from 1845 to 1855, is to be presented to the State tomorrow at 10:30 A. M. The exercises will be in the Representatives hall and the address on the life and services of Major Hinton will be by Major W. A. Graham. The presentation is to be by State Treasurer B. R. Lacy. Governor Craig is scheduled to accept on the part of the State, but may be out of the city attending the North Carolina Bar Association.

The State Medical Board is examining nearly 150 medical students here who are applicants for licenses to practice medicine in this State. The examinations began this morning and will require three days, concluding at 6 o'clock Friday evening. Dr. L. M. Stevens, of Asheville, is president of the board for the ensuing year and Dr. Hubert Royster is secretary-treasurer. The board has selected Dr. Charles M Taylor, of Morganton, as the delegate to the federated meeting at Chicago in February. His alternate is Dr. E. G. Moore, of Elm City.

NOTICE

"The State Board of Elections, having canvassed the returns of the counties constituting the Sixth Congressional District of the Primary held on the 3rd day of June, and finding that no one secured a majority of votes and that Hannibal L. Godwin and Joseph A. Brown received the highest number of votes, now in pursuance of Section 24 of the Primary Law, the State Board of Elections orders that a second Primary be held on Saturday, July 1st, 1916, in which Godwin and Brown may be voted for."

(Signed) WILSON G. LAMB,

Chairman State Board of Elections.

In accordance with the above and for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress from the Sixth Congressional District, a primary will be held in New Hanover County on Saturday, July 1st, between the hours of sunrise and sunset. The same voting precincts, registrars and judges of election as served in the General Primary will serve in this Primary.

How are your biscuits baking?

If your biscuits are not baking as light and fine as they used to it's due to rain-damaged wheat. This season's crop was the worst in 50 years. Flour from such wheat lacks strength; doesn't rise properly because it's fermented by too much moisture.

But you can get flour made from highest grade wheat. By sending our own men to far off sections and paying premium prices, we got enough of the best wheat to keep Valier's Dainty Flour up to the highest quality. Now, especially, you ought to get this superfine flour. It may cost a trifle more, but it is guaranteed to make better biscuits, cake, pastry etc.

TOP O' THE MORNING.

Dreams fade, deeds fail, and days depart—
And all is changed in time and place;
Thrice blessed are the pure in heart
For only they shall see God's face.
—PHILLIPS BROOKS.

Nerve often gives a man the reputation of being possessed of ability.

One of the most beautiful things said about Mr. Hughes is that he has three single daughters.

Most men know how to get into trouble but very few know how to get out of it. That is why there are lawyers.

To butt in or to wade right in requires neither prudence nor wisdom but it requires both to pull off such a stunt as "watchful waiting."

Eveybody's business is nobody's business but lots of people persist in giving personal attention to the private affairs of first one and then t'other.

Men have the right of free speech conferred upon them, but the prudence with which they exercise it has to be born in them. Some men were born without a bit.

Some men talk war but never enlist. They talk war and expect others to do the fighting. The number of patriots like that could overrun Mexico if they would only go and do it.

As soon as a married man finished his work at the office he closed up immediately and got home at the proper time. When his wife saw him coming in so promptly for the once she met him at the door for fear the poor thing wasn't feeling at all well.

Texas considers it a joke on a doctor and a lawyer who reached the hospital with a man in whose pockets not a cent of money was to be found. As they picked the man up on the road, it is to be presumed that some stray Texan reached the man before the doctor and the lawyer got to him.

One of the easiest things a man can do is to make a fool of himself, but in the event that he can't do it all by himself some woman is sure to enable him to make a complete success of it. This is confined to a paragraph, because self-evident propositions do not require much space.

We don't see why Villa should be called an ignorant bandit when he is smart enough to outwit so-called wise men. How did a common bandit know that he could so complicate matters as to make a mockery of the ways of the wise? Nobody in Mexico seems to be smart enough to keep out of a trap set by a fool.

We hope the Democratic party will be kept in power at Washington for what it has done for the financial, business and agricultural interests of the country. The Federal Reserve Bank act was a god-send to business, and the Farm Loan bank act will be the beginning of salvation for the farmers. We don't know whether the farmers appreciate their new opportunity or not. We are glad on their account as well as for the country's, whether they are glad or not. No doubt they are glad.

In his letter to the Progressive National committee, Colonel Roosevelt disapproves of President Wilson. In his books Roosevelt disapproves of all the presidents except a certain President Roosevelt who spent seven years of turmoil in the White House. He never mentioned in his letter to the Progressive committee that both the Republicans and the Democrats felt a great relief when he retired to private life, even though he has kept the country in a constant state of agitation through his desire for a third term.

GOLDSBORO TAKES THE LEAD

The Star two or three days ago suggested that it would be wise for the cities and towns of North Carolina to immediately organize a home guard as a protective and precautionary measure in the absence of the National Guard forces from the State during the crisis in Mexico that will probably necessitate the absence of the military organization for quite a while. It is gratifying to note that Goldsboro on Tuesday, the day before the two companies of the National Guard in that city were to proceed to the mobilization camp at Morehead, made final arrangements for the organization of a home guard with a membership of 150. So far as we know, Goldsboro leads all other cities and towns in the State in this matter.

Goldsboro also takes the lead, so far as we are informed, in taking steps as a community to care for all needy families of members of the National Guard who are called away for service. This sort of action at this time is very laudable and it shows that those who remain at home are so possessed of the spirit of patriotism as to be willing to share in the burdens necessarily incident to any crisis that calls away men in considerable numbers from their ordinary avocations to serve their country. Goldsboro went about this matter as if she meant business, and The Star's correspondent Tuesday night wired that the subscriptions for the support of dependents of the Guardsmen amounted to nearly $15,000 and that several individuals contributed as much as $500 each, to this fund.

Of course, there are many instances probably where the men gone away with their companies at the call of the President do not leave their families in such circumstances that they would suffer without being looked after in this manner by their communities, but doubtless there are many cases in which families are left in such circumstances that they would soon face destitution without aid, in the absence of the men whose daily labors are their sole means of support. The spirit of patriotism as well as the spirit of humanity would demand that these be protected against want. It is enough for a man to endure the hardships, dangers and ofttimes the real suffering that is the lot of the soldier in service, without the mental anguish of constant fear that his loved ones are suffering for want of the necessities of life in his absence.

It is to be hoped and confidently expected that many other communities will follow promptly the laudable example set by Goldsboro and organize a home guard and take community steps to provide for the wants of the needy families of those men who make the great sacrifice entailed in leaving their homes and loved ones, their occupation and their income and offering their lives upon the altar of their country's honor and safety.

The necessity for a home guard in the State in the absence of the military forces was well illustrated this week when Governor Craig considered it his duty to send two companies of the National Guard to Snow Hill as a precaution against mob violence in connection with the trial of a negro charged with an atrocious crime. The Governor stated that he was aware that the mob spirit was abroad in Green county and that he did no care to permit the temptation to violence to be presented to the enraged people by sending the prisoner there to be tried without ample protection. Hence he commissioned Generals Lawrence Young and J. T. Gardner with the Raleigh and Franklinton companies to escort the prisoner to Greene county and back. No mob violence occurred.

Under such circumstances, however, what would have been done if all the companies of the National Guard of the State had been on the Mexican border and no home guard organized for duty? The very presence in the State of its military forces is a deterrent to those inclined to the mob spirit and by the same token the absence of any military force is calculated to serve as an invitation and a temptation to those so inclined to take advantage of the occasion. No harm can come of the organization of a home guard, while it is certainly desirable as a precautionary measure of safety for the State and its various communities.

THE HAND OF HUGHES BUT THE VOICE OF ROOSEVELT.

Dinner for only two was served last night at the New York headquarters of the Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president. The two diners were Mr. Hughes and Colonel Roosevelt, who accepted the nominee's invitation following an exchange of personal notes and after the Colonel had talked over the telephone with Mr. Hughes on Tuesday. Of course, all that conversation was for the purpose of enabling the two gentlemen to understand each other before it was worth while having the eats.

It is perfectly plain that the invitation shows that the Colonel was sent for. Mr. Hughes evidently wanted to consult him about what he intends to say or what he should say or not say in his formal acceptance of the nomination, notification of which is to be formally given in the next few days. Since Mr. Hughes called in Dr. Roosevelt, it stands to reason that he will take the doctor's medicine. Therefore, it is to be presumed that much of the Hughes words of acceptance will be furnished by Roosevelt. The letter of acceptance, therefore, will be made to suit Colonel Roosevelt, because all the preliminaries plainly indicate as much.

Thus we see that the sage of Oyster Bay again has a great deal to say as to who shall be our president. The G. O. P. convention nominated its candidate, but it was necessary to get the O. K. of the Colonel. Of course, that's it, for Roosevelt is about as powerful as any National Republican convention.

Mr. Hughes probably didn't dare to say a word heretofore till he could consult Colonel Roosevelt. He has refused even to say a word about the Mexican situation up to this time, although most any intelligent American is prepared to speak off hand about that, because it is an actual condition to be spoken about and not a theory with "ifs and ands" to be considered or mentioned. Why couldn't the nominee speak out on that question without consulting Roosevelt?

The balance of the story about the dinner last night can be seen in The Star's telegraphic columns this morning, so far as the particulars were made public. This reference here only has to do with the inference that when Hughes does speak out shortly it will be another case of "the hand of Esau but the voice of Jacob." We are all prepared to believe that it will be largely Roosevelt speaking through Hughes, if it is agreeable for the nominee to be the phonograph.

WHO'S RIGHT—HUGHES OR ROOSEVELT.

Mr. Hughes declares that the Democratic party "has not the national outlook." That is only what one man of his partisan point of view individually imagines about it. What even so astute a man as Mr. Hughes imagines is not necessarily a fact. However, we imagine that the main Republican objection to the Democrats is on account of their national inlook. The fact is, the Republicans want all the national inlook for themselves, but when Mr. Hughes had a chance to state the proposition correctly, he preferred to make the usual Republican mistake of imagining that only one American party has any national outlook.

We have been observing the G. O. P. for a long time, and we are surprised that Mr. Hughes has failed himself to observe that it has always had more special interest outlook than it ever had of national outlook. We can't see why men who run for President can't catch on to plain matters of fact like that. We really hope the Republican party is going to have some national outlook to it, but we can't give the party credit for it just because its presidential nominee imagines it.

Our recollection about it four years ago is that the people found the Republican party guilty of not having much national outlook. It was letting Aldrich, Payne and Smoot personally conduct its outlook, and not only the Democrats but Colonel Roosevelt and the Progressives came to the same conclusion and sent the Hughes party to Davy Crockett's locker. That's the record, anyhow.

We say that is absolutely true and Mr. Hughes and other apologists for the G. O. P. cannot refute it. Neither can Colonel Roosevelt help them to do it because he would have to go to work and dispute himself. The Colonel said four years ago that the G. O. P. "betrayed its trust to the people," and two-thirds of the voters in America agreed in November, 1912, that he was no prevaricator at all.

What we want to know is where all the Republican party's imagined "national outlook" was when the Democrats and Progressives rose up and swatted it for not having any, while its main business was to exploit the people and betray their trust.

Either Roosevelt was wrong when he declared that the Republican party had betrayed its trust to the people, or Hughes is wrong now when he draws upon his imagination for the idea that the G. O. P. is noted for its national outlook. If it has much, it must have acquired it since Roosevelt condemned it and the people repudiated it just four years ago.

SUPPOSE TEDDY IS FOR HUGHES!

Of course, Teddy is a quitter. Whenever a fellow plays his limit he surely has to quit. He now stands for what the standpatters stood for at Chicago. For one thing, they certainly stood on Teddy and put it up to him to eat crow. He ate it but made a noise as if his dish of crow tasted just like Wilson.

Huh! Suppose the Bull Moose does want Hughes for President! The country certainly didn't want Roosevelt and it ought not to bother itself about wanting any president subject to his influence. The best way to get rid of Bull Mooseism is to get rid of him and every one of his candidates. The main reason why Colonel Roosevelt is for Hughes, however, is that he found out that it was no use for him to be for himself. So why should what the Colonel does or says influence thinking Americans?

WAR TALK WITH MEXICO.

War with Mexico will mean more money for the Government and a special war tax.

As most of the war tax is paid by the retail dealers of this country would it not be to the interest of the retail merchants to get busy and see if they cannot be looked after a little better, in the future than in the past?

As a retail druggist is the writer of this article, will you let us tell some of our experience in the drug line.

We are paying the Spanish-American war tax the same now as when the stamps were put on proprietary drugs and patent medicines and the government is not getting a penny. When the stamps were put on, as required by the government, thirty cents in stamps was put on a dozen one dollar preparations and they advanced the price 50 cents to the retailer. When the stamp tax was repealed the price to the retailer remained the same. Let us take chewing gum as an example. When the European war came on we were short of funds and a war tax was put on it of four cents per box. Every retailer selling chewing gum today knows he is paying from ten to fourteen cents more per box and the government is getting only four cents. The consumer pays the same. Who pays the tax?

These are small items but amount to a great deal. We are willing to pay for an equal tax but are not willing to pay such profits to the manufacturers for putting the stamps on.

Now, my fellow retailers, in the Sixth congressional district of North Carolina, get busy and elect Hon. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn to Congress, where he will look after the interests of the retailer, as he is one among us.

There are many things that come up where a practical business man and a farmer can see justice that would be overlooked by professional men. The Farmers' Loan Bill, now pending in Congress, shows the absence of a practical farmer in Congress. It takes a man that knows the needs of the farmer and how to reach him. These qualifications are in Mr. Brown as he comes in contact with them in every day life.

If there is anything lacking in this district it is agricultural development. We are not equal in this respect, to any other district in the State and, until we have a wide-awake, practical man in Congress, we cannot keep pace with the progressives.

THAT GODWIN MEETING IN LUMBERTON.

To the Editor of The Star:

Noting the inaccuracy and attempt by the reporter to minimize the Godwin meeting held in the court house last night, I wish to give the true facts. The correspondent or reporter tried to make it appear that the crowd present consisted of only a few rural mail carriers and postmasters when, as a fact, the court house was crowded with hundreds of Robeson's strongest and most influential citizens, almost every part of the county being represented. In fact, it was the most enthusiastic meeting I have attended during the entire campaign.

If any one thinks Godwin has no following in old Robeson, just let them wait until the votes are counted Saturday night. Godwin carried the county in the first primary and our people are not so inconsistent as to support him in the first and vote against him in the second. They see no reason for taking a backward step, and are not going to do so. In the meeting of last night, speeches were made by a number of citizens, all with one accord, "return Godwin to Congress by the largest majority ever given." The East Lumberton Brass Band furnished music. VOTER.

CURRENT COMMENT

The following poster was distributed in Newton last Friday: "Recruits wanted for cavalry. Your country calls; it is your duty to respond. Are you game? Troop 'A' Lincolnton, N. C., needs fifty men." In looking over a roster of the troop in Friday's issue of the Lincoln County Times we were shocked to see that the valiant warrior C. A. Jonas, who has been sizzing for a fight for the last three years and outraged because Wilson had not sent an army to Mexico, has not enlisted. We were pleased to see that Kemp Nixon, Mr. Jones' opponent in the last Senatorial campaign, who has not exhibited his belligerency on the political stamp, "is game."—Newton Enterprise.

There must needs be congratulations not alone to Miss May F. Jones, of Asheville, on her appointment as private secretary to the Governor, but to the women of the State as well, for the appointment, outside of any bearing which it may have upon the question of equal suffrage, is a recognition of the ability of women to hold positions which have heretofore been held as exclusively appertaining to men. Governor Locke Craig's appointment of Miss Jones as his private secretary is one made upon merit and upon service rendered. Under the administration of Governor Locke Craig, as well as under other administrations, Miss May Jones has demonstrated her ability to hold position of responsibility, and to perform the duties involved with distinction. As executive secretary to Governor Craig Miss Jones has proven efficient in a high degree, her appointment to the position of private secretary being a promotion won by service. —Raleigh News and Observer.

Rueful countenances are comprehensible on the young men who journeyed to Camp Glenn in the hope of seeing service on the Mexican border, only to be rejected by the examining surgeons because they do not come up to the physical requirements. Doubtless some of those thus rejected would have made good soldiers. Inherent strength is not always a matter of either height or weight, and after a few weeks of camp life some of the rejected ones would have made a good showing. In this matter, however, it is best to err on the side of safety. It would not only be inadvisable but inexcusable to take a youth of frail constitution into the climate of Mexico to run the risk of the diseases which attack one in a state of depleted vitality and to become exhausted in the performance of the long and trying marches that might be necessitated. Better no soldiery than an unfit soldiery. Those who applied for enlistment, however, and were denied the privilege have at least the pleasant consciousness of having done their duty to their country. Their next duty is to themselves; to begin a course of exercises that will make them fit.—Charlotte Observer.

COTTON MAKING PROGRESS IN MOST SECTIONS OF BELT

Higher Temperatures During Week Have Been Favorable to Growth.

Washington, June 28.—Cotton is making good progress in most sections of the belt, the National Weather and Crop Bulletin today announced. Reviewing conditions for the week, which ended Tuesday, the Bulletin says.

"The higher temperatures that have prevailed during the week had a favorable effect upon the growth of cotton, and it has made good progress in most sections. Heavy showers have interrupted cultivation to some extent and there is some complaint to grassy fields.

"The plants are blooming as far north as Southern South Carolina and blossoms are plentiful in Arkansas. In Texas the plant is in all stages of development and it continues blooming and forming squares in Louisiana and Mississippi and squares are forming freely in Georgia.

"The boll weevil are general west of the Suwanee river in Florida, are increasing in number in the southwest corner of Georgia, are numerous in the southern portion of Alabama, where they are damaging locally, are doing considerable damage in some places in Mississippi, are locally numerous in northern Louisiana and are rapidly increasing in Texas, with some damage reported. Cotton lice are reported in a few places in Alabama."

"Corn is in good condition in the southeastern states and the plants are tasseling in southern South Carolina and in Arkansas. Rain is badly needed for corn in Texas and parts of Louisiana.

"Sweet potatoes are growing well.

"Garden crops are doing well in most Southern states.

"Sugar cane is reported growing favorably.

"Tobacco is making satisfactory growth and much is being housed in Florida.

"Peanuts made good progress in Tennessee and are being planted on stubble land in South Carolina."

CLARENCE HINES HONORED.

Selected by Norfolk Southern to Handle Movement of Troops.

Whiteville, N. C., June 28.—The many friends in Columbus and throughout this section of Clarence Hines, formerly of Whiteville, will be interested in the following news item from the New Bern Sun-Journal:

"Mr. Clarence Hines, who has for some years held the position of chief dispatcher of this, the central division of the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, has been selected from a number of competent railway men to fill a position in the Operating Department under the Quartermaster General of the United States Army, and within a few days will leave this city.

"Mr. Hines will probably be first located at Morehead City. It will be his duty to attend to the transportation of all troops and other matters in connection with such. The position is one which calls for a man thoroughly versed in railway work, diplomacy and business ability and the fact that Mr Hines has been selected for this place from among a large number of men who were considered, is quite an honor for him.

"Mr. Hines has made a host of friends since coming to New Bern and it will be with regret that these will learn of his contemplated departure but they will congratulate him upon his good fortune in being selected."

Hygiene and the Militia

IN a public building I have seen displayed the sign: "Cut out the war talk; this place is neutral." So also is this column neutral. The following is not war talk, nor military preparedness talk. But it is physical preparedness talk, advice to the young man how to get his body in condition to meet all of life's exigencies, of whatever nature, I wrote the following for Collier's Weekly and reproduce it here by permission:

Young man, it is really amazing, the amount of health, physical and mental—yes, and spiritual, too—and what fun you can get out of a good regiment. I am writing this from experience. In the awkward squad you are introduced to a fine system of gymnastics, in which pretty much every muscle and organ in your make-up gets a chance. You assume the position of a soldier; and perhaps for the first time in your life you enjoy a delicious sense of anatomic symmetry and completeness. Never after that will you shuffle along, stoop-shouldered, with your hands in your trousers pockets. And the drills! For an hour and a half you stand to the limit of your inches—shoulders back, head up, chin straight out, eyes to the front; your movements are times measured and rhythmed; you enjoy the mental rest of having no initiative of your own, of doing precisely what you are told, and of having someone else for the time being do your thinking for you. After some preliminaries you are given your piece to carry; this seems to you to have the weight of a young pine tree; and at the start you manipulate it with the grace of a dancing bear balancing his staff. Subsequently you go home, bathe, sleep soundly, and awake with an appetite, a sense of physical well-being, and a clearness of intellect such as are, most new, and certainly happy experiences. You become one of a company of a hundred splendid fellows—sound, clean, manly, wholesome. Among such your mind and body, your morals, too, have just got to be right. And you will learn also why the hat must be removed when the flag passes; that in itself will be worth all the rest of the game.

A HEALTHY SPECIMEN.

M. R. W writes: 1. I am 21 years old, 5 feet 6 inches high and weigh 141 pounds. I am a heavy weight? 2. I would like also for you to give me some hints on proper quantities of food and kinds of food for a meal. Could you express quantities in spoonsful and slices? They would be far more understandable that way. 3. I expect next fall to walk a mile and a quarter to school. Should my food vary in quantity then? I suffer so much with attacks of biliousness that I am anxious for relief if possible.

Answer: Yes, you are some heavyweight. Try to get down to 132, which is right according to schedule. You seem to be a trifle morbid on the subject of diet; that is not natural in such a healthy young person. Tuck in three square meals of the same kind of food most other folks eat and you will be all right. 3. If that walk to school were three miles and you traversed it daily rain or shine, coming and going, you would be all the better for it. Drink plenty of water, especially between meals, avoid constipation, have your eyes examined to be sure your bilious attacks are not on account of your needing glasses and you will come along very well.

ULCER OR GASTRALGIA.

R, T. writes: Before Christmas I couldn't wear my clothes tight around my waist. I practically never wear a corset. My ailment is just at the pit of my stomach. Sometimes when I breathe in (never when I expire) it hurts very badly. And when I walk it seems to jar my stomach every step I take. When I wash dishes and press against my abdomen it hurts. And yet I can eat and drink practically everything without it paining me. I am hungry a great deal of the time?

Answer: Your trouble appears to be either stomach ulcer or neuralgia of the stomach. Two articles on this subject were recently published.

GET LEAVE OF ABSENCE IF CALLED TO COLORS

City Employes Will Have Positions Kept Open For Them

City Council Officially Declares Results of Recent City Election—Change in Hour for Weekly Meetings is Made.

Employes of the city of Wilmington who have been called or who may be called to the colors as a result of being members of the State National Guard will be given a leave of absence for so long as they may be engaged in military service, a resolution to this effect having been unanimously passed at the regular weekly meeting of City Council yesterday upon motion of Councilman Bunting, who called attention to the fact that Assistant Fire Chief W. P. Monroe, of his department, had already been called to Morehead City, and that he as head of the department did not have authority to give a vacation for a period of more than ten days.

The results of the recent city election as reported by the City Board of Elections were declared to be official in a resolution introduced by Councilman McCaig. This resolution, which was adopted unanimously, sets forth that as a result of this election the propositions for providing for the city's participating in the development of a manufacturing suburb and also the proposition for improving Princess street by levying a special tax were defeated but that the proposition for improving the waterworks and fire departments by the expenditure of an amount not exceeding $35,000, the same to be paid for by a special tax not to extend beyond five years, had passed by a safe majority. A levy for this purpose, which will probably be either three or four cents on the hundred dollars worth of taxable property will be included in the current tax levy in addition to the regular rate of $1.75.

Councilman McCaig informed Council that the City League Baseball club had requested the use of one of the ball diamonds on the playgrounds on the Marine Hospital site at Eighth and Ann streets and he recommended that it be granted. His suggestion was acted upon favorably and the first game will be played on next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Councilman McCaig suggested further that it would be a fine idea if as many of the Councilmen as could do so, would be present. In view of the prominent part taken by Editor Jas. H. Cowan, of The Evening Dispatch, in promoting the development of the playground, Councilman McCaig moved that he be extended an invitation to pitch the first ball across the diamond and possibly to make a short address, if he felt disposed to do so, and it was unanimously voted to extend an invitation to Editor Cowan to be present and officially open the playgrounds to the public.

On motion of Councilman McCaig, seconded by Councilman Merritt, it was decided that for the remainder of the summer months until October 1st the weekly meetings of Council should be held on Monday nights at 8 o'clock instead of on Wednesday mornings. This ordinance will not become effective for ten days.

Councilman Bunting called attention to the tract of land on Summer Rest at Wrightsville Sound, which was originally purchased for an encampment, now owned by the city of Wilmington and leased to Mr. Pembroke Jones, which he thought might be sold and the proceeds used to develop a playground in the southern part of the city near Greenfield lake. There is about 100 acres of land in the tract and the lease held by Mr. Jones is merely for a nominal sum. The lease provides that the land may be sold by giving 60 days' notice to the lessor.

Councilman Bradshaw called attention to the heavy rains which fell on last Sunday afternoon in Wilmington, which caused considerable damage to the streets. He stated that Dock street from Second to Third and Second from Orange to Dock streets were in bad condition. The sidewalk on the south side of Dock from Front to Water streets was also in very bad condition, he stated, and upon his motion a resolution was adopted authorizing the city clerk and treasurer to notify the property owners that they would be called on for their part of the cost of repairing same.

Councilman Merritt reported that he had leased the old Fourth street market house to Mr. Dallas Orrell for $15 a month, the building to be used for a garage.

Mayor Moore presided at the meeting which was attended by Councilmen Merritt, Hall, McCaig, Bradshaw and Bunting. Councilman Jones was the only member absent.

HANOVER BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION HOLDS MEETING

Secretary-Treasurer's Report Shows Most Successful Year.

The report of the secretary-treasurer of the Hanover Building & Loan Association submitted Tuesday night at the annual meeting of the stockholders held at the association's office, No. 307 Princess street, showed that the past year has been a most successful one, and that the total assets of the association now aggregate more than $113,000, with $11,117 in profits made during the past year.

The following officers and directors were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. W. Yates; vice president, John VanB. Metts; secretary and treasurer, H. F. Wilder; attorney, C. D. Weeks; directors, J. P. Quelch, J. W. Freeman, Henderson Cole, N. E. Bunting, W. T. Smith, Marsden Bellamy, I. Shrier, R. G. Grady, R. E. Williams, Louis Einstein, Alex S. Yeager.

GRAND JURY WILL MAKE ITS REPORT THIS MORNING

When Superior Court Convenes at 9 O'clock, No Other Business.

Having finished all the business that was before it, there was no session of Superior Court yesterday, but Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabethtown, who is presiding over the term announced that court will be convened this morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of receiving the report of the grand jury.

During the criminal term just ended, all cases on the docket were disposed of in the record time of one and one-half days, and sentences aggregating 18 years and two months were imposed on defendants on various charges.

DR. HURT IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF BOARD

Of Education for Baptist Institutions of Learning.

At Adjourned Session of Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon at Oceanic Hotel at Beach—Other Officers Named.

The chief feature of an adjourned meeting of the Baptist State Board of Education of orth Carolina held yesterday afternoon at the Oceanic Hotel at Wrightsville Beach was the election of officers for the ensuing year. Officers were elected as follows: Dr. John Jeter Hurt, pastor, of the First Baptist church, of Wilmington, president; Hon. C. W. Mitchel, of Aulander, vice president; Mr. Carey J. Hunter, of Raleigh, recording secretary; Rev. Dr. R. T. Vann, of Raleigh, corresponding secretary; Mr. R. H. Rigsbee, of Durham, auditor. Dr. Hurt was re-elected to the presidency, having held the position for the past year.

The Baptist State Board of Education represents the three Baptist colleges of the State, Meredith, Wake Forest and Chowan, and fifteen Baptist preparatory schools and academies. In addition to the election of officers many matters in connection with plans for increasing the usefulness of these institutions were discussed. As ex-officio members of the board, President Chas. E. Brewer, of Meredith College, of Raleigh, and President William L. Potest, of Wake Forest, attended the meeting.

One of the important matters which came up for discussion was plans for cor-relating and standardizing the courses of study at the various academies under the boards' supervision so as to have their work more nearly connect up with the work of the colleges. Already North Carolina has the strongest system of Baptist schools and colleges of any State in the South, it is said, and if plans which are now under way materialize it will soon have a still better system.

COL. METTS LEAVES FOR CAMP.

Local Officer Will Join Command Near Morehead City.

Lieut. Col. J. VanB. Metts, of the Second Regiment, N. C. infantry, left early yesterday morning for Camp Glenn, where he will join his command, which it is expected will be very shortly ordered to the Mexican border for duty.

As the strict medical examinations required for regular army are expected to result in the rejection of from 25 to 30 per cent of the members of the organized militia, it is possible that the Tar Heel troops may be delayed in bringing their quota up to the minimum strength for each unit. At any rate, there will be many new recruits among the various commands.

At the regular drill of the W. L. I. last night, six applications were received for membership in the company. It is expected a large number of additional applications will come in, provided the company is ordered to the border.

HON. J. A. BROWN WILL MAKE ADDRESSES FRIDAY

Speaks to Voters at Seagate and Will Also Speak in Wilmington.

Hon. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, will make two addresses in Wilmington and visinity on Friday night, these being his closing appeals to the voters of the district before the polls open on Saturday for the primary which will determine the result of the strenuous campaign which has been waged by the supporters of Mr. Brown and of Congressman Godwin.

Mr. Brown will speak to the voters at Seagate at 8 o'clock and 8:45 o'clock, he wil speak at Third and Market streets. These addresses will be in the interest of his congressional candidacy.

FINE MUSICAL PROGRANME

At Baptist Seaside Chautauqua Concert on Saturday Night—Metropolitan Singer Secured.

Miss Cannie Chasten, director of the concert to be given on Saturday night at the auditorium on Harbor Island at Wrightsville Beach under the auspices of the Baptist Seaside Assembly, has been fortunate in securing for this event Leonomie Dumais, a Metropolitan singer of fine ability, who will render several charming selections. Miss Chasten feels that she has been particularly fortunate in getting this singer, who is staying for a short while at the beach, to appear on the programme which promises to be one of unusual excellence.

Mr. H. E. Munson, director of the Wilmingon Choral Society, which will appear on the programme, reports fine progress in the rehearsals which have been under way for several weeks. The chorus of 50 voices will sing a number of selections Saturday night. Some of the most talented musicians of the city are members of this organization and have appeared in programmes of a similar nature on many occasions.

Miss Katherine Johnson, of the faculty of Meredith College, who has sung solos at the night sessions each night this week at the Baptist Chautauqua, will be on the programme Saturday night. She received a most enthusiastic reception this week.

Dr. H. McN. Poteat, of Wake Forest College, who has directed the singing with such splendid success at the Chautauqua and who possesses a splendid voice, will also appear on the programme.

Mrs. Meares Harriss, a skilled violinist of this city, has very kindly consented to give several selections which will be sure to please the large audience that will be present at the concert.

Miss Chasten with such a splendid array of talent for this musical programme will be able to have a concert that will appeal to all music lovers, of which there are many in Wilmington. Tickets have been placed on salo at the hotels on the beach and also in the city as well as at the book stores and some of the drug stores.

CHIEF JUSTICE CLARK SAYS HE IS GRATIFIED

That Governor Appointed Miss Jones As Private Secretary

Appointment in Accordance With St. Louis Plantform, Says Distinguished Champion of Woman Suffrage, Who is at Beech.

Chief Justice Walter Clark, of Raleigh, who is now attending the Convention of the Bar Association at Wrightsville Beach, was shown the announcement of the appointment of Miss May F. Jones, to succeed Colonel Kerr as the Governor's Private Secretary, with the Governor's statement that "this did not make him a sufragist." The judge said that he was much gratified that Miss Jones' sex had not debarred her from receiving an appointment of which she was so entirely worthy.

He added that the statement of the Governor that "this did not make him a suffragist" was unnecessary; that while the Governor heretofore had been opposed to suffrage; all know that he is a loyal Democrat and that since the St. Louis platform had been adopted, which made woman's suffrage one of the planks, he was sure that his friend, Governor Craig, loyal Democrat and gentleman that he was, stood frankly upon that platform without evasion or equivocation.

Judge Clark further said that at St. Louis, when the adoption of the platform was in debate, the senator who asked for the adoption of this plank, said that "It has been drafted by President Wilson, who deemed its adoption vital to his success and that as 91 electoral votes were from states which could be controlled by women and would otherwise be cast against him, that this was essential." The plank was then adopted by a vote of 888 1-2 to 171 1-2, the North Carolina delegation voting 13 to 11 in favor of it. No one will accuse President Wilson or the great Democratic party, said Judge Clark, of seeking to get these 91 votes and the presidency on false pretenses, and whatever may have heretofore, been the independent views of gentlemen on this subject, all loyal Democrats will feel faithfully bound to carry out the pledges to the women of the country, thus solemnly made.

The same is true of the plank in the Republican platform, the Judge added, which was not thus based frankly upon the avowed need of the 91 electoral votes, but upon the ground that this was a "Government of all the people, by all the people and for all the people"; equal suffrage has thus become a party tenet and a pledge, and is no longer an issue.

The Chief Justice was also asked what he thought of Governor Craig's statement that the private secretaryship was not an office, "because she was not required to take an oath." He said he was charmed with the simple solution this offered of an illogical situation. The Supreme Court by a majority of one had held that a woman could not be a notary public, though the legislature, by an overwhelming majority, had said that she could, and Governor Craig had appointed Mrs. Knight, and that more recently the court had felt compelled to hold that a mortgage was invalid because it had been acknowledged before a woman who had for years been a deputy clerk and that Governor Craig's suggestion showed how easy it was to extricate ourselves now from the illogical situation in which we had been placed by slamming the door of opportunity in the face of all women.

The judge said that if this proposition was correct, all that was necessary to do was for the next legislature, to strike out the requirement that notary publics, deputy clerks and members of the official boards of our public institutions and railroads should take an oath, and thus at once women would be eligible to all these positions. It is delightfully simple to get out of an illogical situation, the Judge declared, if one can only think of the right method.

"Some years ago the Republican Supreme Court," he said, "thinking to rescue the State from the inroads of the Democrats who were taking possession of all the offices, held that trustees of the university, members of the public boards of our institutions and railroads, were offices. These received no pay, while the office of private secretary is not only a highly honorable and important one, but the salary thereof is paid out of the public treasury, as it should be. Neither do notary publics receive any salary from the public, but only receive compensation from individuals for work done.

"By specially providing that these officials cannot be required to take an oath, this door of opportunity of usefulness, will be opened to women, like the important position of Governors' secretary, an office which is held by women in only two other states, as Governor Craig tells us. This simple, but desired solution of a delicate situation comes at a most opportune time. The women of the State have a just grievance in that the board of the State Normal School for Women, at Greensboro and the Eastern Training School at Greenville, though the pupils are girls and these institutions are supported by taxes on the property of women as well as the men, have up to this time been filled entirely by men, women being held incompetent."

Chief Justice Clark made perfectly clear that no criticism of Governor Craig was intended by him and in this connection pointed out that the Governor even prior to the St. Louis platform, although he was opposed, as he had a right to be, if he wished, to "equal suffrage, the women of the State remember that he appointed Mrs. R. E. Little, the daughter of the late Col. R. T. Bennett, on the State Board for the Soldiers' Home and besides appointing Mrs. Jones his private secretary, also appointed Mrs. Noland Knight as a notary public.

JUDGE R. B. PEEBLES DEAD

Passed Away Yesterday in Hospital in Norfolk, Va., Where He Had Gone Recently for Treatment.

Judge R. B. Peebles, of Jackson, for manya years prominent in public life in North Carolina, passed away yesterday morning in a hospital in Norfolk, Va., according to messages received in Wilmington by friends. Immediately after the receipt of the news, President Harry Skinner announced his death to the members of the North Carolina Bar Association, which was in session at the Seashore Hotel at Wrightsville Beach, and adjournment was made in honor of the deceased a short while afterwards.

Judge Peebles was 76 years old and, while his health had not been so good in recent years, he was able to continue in the discharge of his judicial duties until the first part of May when he came to Wilmington to hold a term of Superior Court. He was delayed in arriving on account of illness but with characteristic determination opened the court. However, his colleagues seeing his physical condition was such as to make it inadvisable for him to continue, requested that he would adjourn court and seek medical aid. Resolutions were adopted at that time expressing the high regard that the members of the local bar felt for him, these having been submitted by Hon. John D. Bellamy, for many years a warm personal friend of Judge Peebles.

Judge Peebles upon the outbreak of the War Between the States was a student at the University of North Carolina but at once offered his services. He served gallantly throughout the war and rose to the rank of a captain. He returned to his home at Jackson in Northampton county and entered upon the practice of law. He was also interested in farming, owning a large tract of land and accumulated considerable wealth.

He was always keenly interested in public questions and served his county in the State Legislature for a number of terms. He was at one time a candidate for attorney general but was defeated. He was elected as judge of the Superior Court about 15 years ago and in that time presided at courts in every county in the State.

Judge Peebles was regarded as one of the best versed lawyers in the State, particularly on constitutional questions and in procedure. He always followed his own judgment in rendering decisions and passing judgment in any particular case. He had scant regard for the opinions of other people, no matter how important they might be considered, if they did not accord with his ideas of what was right and just. He was fearless in the expression of his opinions and in deciding upon a course of action.

Judge Peebles had many warm friends not only in Wilmington but throughout the State. He possessed a kindly disposition and was exceedingly generous, where he saw that he could be of help.

Judge Peebles married a daughter of the late Paul Cameron, his wife having been a sister of Col. Benehan Cameron, of Raleigh. Surviving the deceased is a daughter, Mrs. Norfleet Webb, of Hillsboro.

Upon the receipt of the news of Judge Peebles' death yesterday afternoon, Maj. W. N. Harriss, clerk of the Superior Court, ordered the flag which was flying over the Court House, to be lowered to half mast. Had Judge Peebles' health permitted he would have been holding court in Wilmington this week, Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabethtown, having been assigned to preside at this term in his place when it was learned that he could not come.

How to Heal Skin-Diseases

A Baltimore doctor suggests this simple, but reliable and inexpensive, home treatment for people suffering with eczema, ringworm, rashes and similar itching, burning skin troubles.

At any reliable druggist's get a jar of resinol ointment and a cake of resinol soap. These are not at all expensive. With the resinol soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the resinol ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again.

Almost any soap will clean the skin and hair. But those who want a soap which not only cleanses but actually helps the complexion and hair are wise to choose resinol soap.

LADIES OF RED CROSS SOCIETY HOLD PREPAREDNESS MEETING

At Residence of Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, Who is Elected Head of Unit.

At a "preparedness" meeting of members of the Wilmington Red Cross Society held yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. Cuthbert Martin at Wrightsville Beach, two bolts of material were made into comfort bags and badges for the soldiers of the regular army and militia on duty on the border and in Mexico. Seventy-two ladies were in attendance, and much interest was manifested in the movement to organize units of the society in all sections of the city and county for the purpose of making hospital supplies for American soldiers in case they are needed.

Besides the members of the society, other ladies attended and of these many made applications for membership in the local society. The unit of the Wilmington society which met yesterday morning, elected Mrs. Martin as president, and Mrs. Henry Bear as secretary-treasurer. The next meeting of the unit will be held next Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Lyman Delano, at Wrightsville Beach.

Carry the whole family to Carolina Beach and spend the Fourth. Steamer Wilmington leaves 9:00 and 2:30. (Advertisement).

MISS NANNIE MAIE DAVIS BRIDE OF MR. C. R. BUTLER

Glendon, N. C., June 28.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus P. Davis, of Glendon, was the scene of a beautiful but simple wedding Tuesday morning when their daughter, Nannie Maie, became the bride of Mr. Charles R. Butler, of Lynchburg, Va. The halls and dining room were tastily decorated. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Dr. J. F. Davis, brother of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly," following which, to the strains of Lohengrin, the bridal party entered. First came little Elizabeth Fowler, bearing the ring; next followed the maid of honor, Miss Ida Davis, sister of the bride. The groom entered with his brother, Dr. J. R. Butler, of Dunn, N. C. When half way to the improvised altar, the groom was met by the bride, who entered on the arm of her father, and while Mrs. Lee Roy Collins played softly Schubert's Serenade the ceremony was impressively read by Rev. A. S. Barnes, of Raleigh.

After the ceremony the newly wedded couple left for a tour of Northern cities. Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. E. R. Cooper, of Dunn, mother of the groom, and Miss Kate Corbett, of Currie, N. C., and a dozen others representing several states.

RED SPRINGS ENTERTAINS THE LUMBER BRIDGE COMPANY

Red Springs, N. C., June 28.—What was pronounced by all present to be one of the most pleasant and largely attended entertainments ever given in Red Springs was given here Monday evening by the citizens of the town to the members of the Lumber Bridge Light Infantry. The boys, under command of Capt. John Malloy and Lieutenants Barr and Currie and Quartermaster Joe Shaw, arrived here at 6 o'clock and marched, 74 strong, to the campus in front of Hotel Red Springs. Marching in front of them were the members of Camp Ryan, led by Maj. G. H. Hall. After assembling here prayer was offered by Dr. J. J. Hill, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Short speeches of five minutes each were then made by Maj. G. H. Hall, A. P. Spell and Rev. H. M. Dixon. The response was by Lieutenant Currie.

At the conclusion of the speeches the boys repaired to tables in the grove, where a most elaborate spread had been prepared for them by the ladies of the town, and the boys seemed to enjoy it to the fullest. When they had finished eating the crowd dispersed to witness the practice given by the company. Never before has a more beautiful spirit been shown by the citizens of Red Springs to the boys of this section who are leaving home and friends to fight in defense of their country. Red Springs furnished 12 of her sons who go forward to obey the country's call. Red Springs will follow them with her best wishes and trust that their lives may be protected and that they will have a safe return.

DR. SIKES SPEAKS ON AMERICAN PRESIDENCY

Characterizes Lincoln as One of Greatest Presidents.

President of Coker College Addresses Baptist Seaside Assembly—Dr. Wharton to Speak Tonight —Splendid Music.

Characterizing Lincoln as one of the greatest presidents the country has ever had, Dr. E. W. Sikes last night in the course of a most entertaining and instructive lecture on "The American Presidency" delivered at the evening session of the Baptist Seaside Assembly at Wrightsville Beach, declared that under him the presidency reached the highwater mark of power. "His power," the speaker added ,"from 1861 to 1865 was that of the most absolute ruler on earth. In control of the army and navy and backed by the great resources of the country, his will was law."

Dr. Sikes, who succeeded in making history almost as fascinating as a novel to his audience, was frequently interrupted by applause.

"When Lincoln came to the presidency," said Dr. Sikes, "he faced a difficult task. At that time he was not a great man, but during that struggle his head became clearer and his love of justice to his fellow man became a passion with him. He swore he would save the Union. The South loved the Union, but she loved slavery just a little more. The North loved the Union, but hated slavery even more than it loved the Union."

"Of the presidents since the war, I feel confident that history will finally accord one of the highest places to Grover Cleveland, who in a crisis was willing to face forces that were threatening our welfare," the speaker continued.

"Beginning with and since the race between McKinley and Bryan, all candidates nominated for the presidency have been of unimpeachable moral character. No man has been nominated against whom anything reflecting on his good name could be said. Now this is peculiarly so in the case of President Wilson and Justice Hughes. Both these men come from parsonages. They got training there which will be an asset to them in solving the problems, no matter which is chosen to lead the people during the next four years from November.

"If Woodrow Wilson must lead the forces in a war on Mexico, I hope he will do it with all the vigor of his staunch Presbyterianism; and if it is to be Hughes, Baptist principles will but make him more steadfast in waging the fight."

Today's Programme.

Tonight will be known as "Wilmington Night" at the Assembly and it is expected that one of the largest audiences since the opening will be in attendance to hear Dr. H. M. Wharton, of Baltimore, deliver probably the best Chautauqua lecture on the entire programme, on the subject of "The Ups and Downs of Life."

In emphasizing to the delegates and visitors what this evening had in store for them in the way of entertainment Dr. J. J. Hurt declared, "some of the speakers we have had so far on the programme have made us think, but Dr. Wharton is going to entertain us. Dr. Wharton is going to make us laugh, weep a little and maybe shout some. Tell your friends to come. The address will be given at 8:30 o'clock and will be preceded by a very entertaining musical programme, which will begin at 8 o'clock.

The principal address of the morning session will be delivered by Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, of Louisville, Ky., who will speak on "Some of the Religious Aspects of the War." This address will be delivered at 11:50 a. m., and will be preceded by a half-hour's musical period directed by Dr. H. McN. Poteat, of Wake Forest.

Dr. McGlothlin will aso speak at the opening of the session at 9 a. m, "Paul, the Missionary Statesman." Other features of the morning programme will be addresses as follows: Prof. L. P. Leavell on, "Departmental Superintendents," Rev. W. N. Johnson, on "Financing the Kingdom," Mrs. B. A. Hocutt on a missionary topic, Miss Pearl Howard on "Mission Literature," and Mrs. J. R. Wilson, on "Person Service."

The musical programme last night was one of the most enjoyable and varied carried out up to this time. Dr. H. McN. Poteat, leader for this part of the programme, paying his own accompaniment, sang two selections of a popular nature hich were very much enjoyed. One of these, an imitation of a colored preacher's sermon set to music, was especially good. Miss Katherine Johnson rendered three very delightful solos, two of which were in response to encores. Miss Johnson has a remarkably fine voice, and her singing is one of the features of the programme each morning and evening. The Acme Male quartette sang three popular selections which won merited applause from the audience.

Nominating Committee.

At the conclusion of the musical programme last night, Secretary E. L. Middleton announced that it was customary to elect officers of the Assembly before the close of the session and that a motion for the appointment of a nominating committee for this purpose would be in order. Such a motion was made and carried, and Dr. John Jeter Hurt, the president and presiding officer of the Assembly, named the following to serve on the committee: Judge John A. Oates, of Fayetteville; Rev. J. A. Campbell, of Bule's Creek, and Rev. W. H. Reddish, of Wadesboro. This committee will make its report the latter part of the week.

"SUNNY JIM" O'BRIEN'S FUNERAL IS HELD AT OAKDALE LODGE

Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure Conducts Services at Cemetery.

The funeral of "Sunny Jim" O'Brien, who died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital Monday night after being an invalid for the past eight years, was held yesterday morning at the lodge in Oakdale cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. Interment was made in the cemetery.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

—Rev. J. E. Reynolds, pastor of Dock Street Christian church, left yesterday for a month's vacation which he will spend in Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi.

—Dr. M. J. Carson, president of the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners, lef last night for Raleigh, where the board will hold its annual examination today, tomorrow and Saturday.

LOCAL DOTS

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C., AT A MEETING HELD ON THE 28TH DAY OF JUNE, 1916.

"Whereas, the City Board of Elections has duly certified to this Council the results of the special city election held on the 3rd day of June, 1916, at which election three several questions or propositions were separately submitted to the qualified electors of said city, involving the levy of a special tax over a given period of years; and,

"Whereas, from the results as certified by said City Board of Elections it appears that the proposition to levy a special tax and the purchase of additional apparatus and equipment for the Fire Department of said City has been carried by a majority of the qualified voters of said City, and the remaining propositions, to-wit: the levying of a special tax for the purpose of paving Princess street in said City and the levying of a special tax to enable said City to take part in or become interested in an industrial suburb or development have not received a majority of the votes of the qualified electors of said City, and therefore the last mentioned two propositions have been lost;

"Therefore, Resolved, That this Council does hereby declare the proposition of raising funds to extend the water mains and to purchase additional apparatus and equipment for the Fire Department of said City in the sum of Thirty-five Thousand ($35,000) Dollars has been carried by a majority of the votes of the qualified electors of said City, and is hereby declared by this Council to be so carried; that the remaining propositions heretofore mentioned as having been submitted have not been carried by a majority of the votes of the qualified electors of said City and the same is by this Council hereby so declared.

"Resolved, further, That the City Clerk and Treasurer be and is hereby directed to incorporate in the minutes of the meeting of this Council held on this 28th day of June, 1916, the report and results of said special election as certified by said City Board of Elections, together with this resolution and to further make publication in such manner as may be required by law of the action of this Council as embodied in this resolution.

7,000 TURN OUT TO BID GUARDSMEN FAREWELL

Three Companies Given Rousing Send-Off at Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, Lumber Bridge and Raeford Companies Entrain at the Cape Fear City for Mobilization Camp.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 28.—Seven thousand people saw three companies of the Second Infantry, North Carolina National Guard—Company G, Raeford, Capt. D. C. Knibbs; Company L, Lumber Bridge, Capt. J. D. Malloy, and Company F, Fayetteville, Capt. R. J. Lamb—entrain today for the mobilization point of the National Guard at Morehead City. The guardsmen were given a rousing, patriotic farewell.

The three companies, as they marched to the railroad station, were given honorary escort, composed of the gray company of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, Confederate Veterans, Spanish-American War veterans, Boy Scouts and school children, the whole being headed by a band.

At the railroad station short, snappy talks were made from the balcony of the Cape Fear Hotel by Col. C. W. Broadfoot, representing the Civil War veterans; Major B. R. Huske, as a representative of the veterans of the Spanish-American war; Mayor James D. McNeill, and ex-Mayor John Underwood. A prayer was made by Rev. W. R. Royall, chaplain of Company F, who also made a farewell talk to the soldiers.

The women of the town had prepared tempting lunches for each member of the local company, while generous individuals had placed cases of cigarettes, fruits, tobacco and cigars in their baggage car.

Each member of the local company was presented with a pocket Testament.

The committees having charge of the arrangements were more than delighted at the farewell given the boys by the townspeople, while people from all the surrounding country were here to give them Godspeed. The spirit of the people was shown by the fact that the women of the city responded to the call for lunches with twice as many as were asked for.

The three infantry troops left the Atlantic Coast Line station at 12:30 on a special train of 11 cars. They will arrive at Morehead City at 8:15 tonight. Company F was in command of Capt. R. J. Lamb and Second Lieut. D. R. Florence, First Lieut. D. B. Byrd having been attached to the aviation corps of the regular army by order of the Secretary of War. Company F, Fayetteville, carried 97 men. Company L, Lumber Bridge, 76 men, was commanded by Capt. J. B. Malloy, with First Lieut. D. A. Barlow and Second Lieut. A. Currie. Company G, Raeford, 51 men, was in command of Capt. D. C. Knibbs, First Lieut. H. W. B. Whitley and Second Lieut. J. B. Williamson. Major J. V. McGougan, chief surgeon of the Second Regiment, accompanied the troops.

The Fayetteville company carried as its mascot a black and white goat, named "Woodrow."

Company M, was picked up at Dunn and Company C, at Selma by the troop train made up here.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED AT ROCKY MOUNT TO BID BOYS GOOD-BYE

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 28.—Business activities were suspended for an hour this morning and citizens to a number of several thousand participated in a mammoth parade and good-bye to the local militia, off to Camp Glenn. It was a fitting culmination to the many expressions of appreciation for the service that the men set out today to accomplish and the parade had been preceded first of all by a luncheon by the Y. M. C. A. and the presentation of each member with a Testament bearing his name. On Monday a barbecue and expression from a half dozen citizens of the confidence of our people in the boys that are leaving today, while the events were brought to a close today when the officials of the city, the mayor, the five cials of the city, the mayor, the fire the Girl Scouts, the citizens' committee, the chamber of commerce directors, the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Woodman patrol and other organizations ceased activities and journeyed to the station to tell the boys good-bye.

GUARDSMEN GETTING IN LINE AT THE MOBILIZATION CAMP.

Morehead City, N. C., June 28.—Units of the Second Regiment of Infantry of the North Carolina National Guard were being concentrated at Camp Glenn here today, where the First Regiment, one field hospital company and one ambulance company already are assembled. The Third Regiment will arrive Saturday. It is reported that orders received here from the War Department indicate the North Carolina troops will go either to San Antonio or El Paso. The First Regiment, which is requested to be the first unit to leave the border, will not be ready to entrain before the last of next week, it is said.

Mustering in and the physical examination of the First Regiment will be completed tomorrow. It was said today that about 20 per cent of the men are being rejected by the medical officers, most of which is due to under weight.

bivalves were served in approved seaside style and greatly enjoyed by everyone, including many of the wives and daughters of the lawyers. Just before going down for the luncheon, the members of the association were photographed.

Workmen's Compensation.

The report of the special committee on Workmen's Compensation bill, which was presented last night by Judge W. P. Bynum, recommended the approval by the association of the Uniform Workmen's Compensation act, which has been approved by the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, and recommended for adoption in all the States. The committee which was appointed at the last meeting of the association to investigate this matter is composed besides Judge Bynum of O. H. Guion, A. L. Brooks, B. S. Royster and Thomas S. Rollins.

The committee reported that the bales of preparing or recommending the bill had received its careful consideration. The rapidity with which the old system of employers' liability for negligence is being supplanted by laws providing for automatic compensation for injuries is said to present one of the most remarkable movements in the whole field of insurance, the committee reported, citing statistics to show that 34 states now have such laws. All of these changes have come about in the last 25 years. The committee submitted a comprehensive report in pamphlet form which had been distributed among the members on the first day of the convention.

R. C. Lawrence, of Lumberton, upon learning that but few of the members present had read the bill proposed to be recommended to the Legislature for passage, asked that final consideration be postponed. J. W. Fless, Esq., of Marion, spoke in opposition to the report. Mr. Forbes Jones made an illuminating talk on the subject, but as it was getting quite late when he began, it was decided to take up the matter further today.

Increase Superior Courts.

The discussion of the report of the legislative committee was taken up yesterday morning immediately after the address by Mr. Buxton. The first section of the report regarding the increase of Superior courts and the decrease of inferior courts provoked much discussion. The report of the commission, appointed by Governor Craig, as authorized by the last General Assembly, recoimmended that 32 Superior court districts be made and that the Recorder's courts be limited to 15. The committee of the association favored an increase of the number of Superior courts but wasn't sure as to the number. It was finally decided by the association to endorse the recommendation of the State commission.

The second recommendation of the commission that Recorder's courts be limited to criminal cases not above misdemeanors was adopted.

The association finally went on record as endorsing the recommendation that the Constitution be amended so that the Legislature may abolish the rotating system of judges. Hon. John D. Bellamy, Judge George P. Pell and others favored the continuance of rotation, while Judge J. Crawford Biggs, A. Wayland Cooke and many others spoke earnestly in favor of having rotation. Judge Pell proposed a substitute that circuits of eight judges each be provided and that the judges rotate in each circuit instead of over the entire State. This was lost by an overwhelming vote and the original recommendation of the committee was carried.

After considerable discussion in opposition to the section providing that an appeal from a justice of the peace in civil cases, whether the justice had jurisdiction or not, the Superior Court shall not dismiss the case, but retain jurisdiction, as is now done on similar appeals in criminal cases, on motion of Hon. John D. Bellamy, it was laid on the table.

Provokes Much Discussion.

"The petitioners, as well as public service corporations, shall have the right of appeal from any decision of the Corporation Commission was discussed for more than an hour at the afternoon session with the result that this recommendation was laid on the table.

This question brought into prominence again the celebrated Ansonville depot case in which a fight was waged as to the location of a railroad station. The Corporation Commission decided where the station should go and an appeal was made to the courts. The Supreme Court decided that the decision of the Corporation Commission was final but a dissenting opinion was filed.

Clement Manly, of Winston-Salem, pointed out that administrative matters should not be submitted to a jury. J. C. Buxton thought that it was an effort to overrule the Supreme Court.

Judge Bynum declared that while he was a member of the commission that recommended the provision, it was merely a preliminary report and he was frank to say that he opposed it.

A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, thought it would be peculiarly unfortunate to allow the matter to drop. If the Constitution has accorded the right of appeal to railroads in such cases, he thought that the lawyers of North Carolina ought to accord it to other litigants. T. L. Caudle, of Wadesboro, pointed out that the Corporation Commission is an administrative body composed of experts and that it is not in any sense a judicial body.

Judge George Rountree and Robert Ruark, of Wilmington, spoke in opposition to the proposed recommendation and pointed out some phases of the question which they thought would cause great inconvenience to the general public, if it were adopted. On motion of Hon. John D. Bellamy, of Wilmington, the matter was laid on the table.

Practically all the other recommendations of the committee, as presented in yesterday's Star, were adopted by the association. Announcement was made by Mr. Bellamy that at this time the committee on Legal Education would not press its recommendation for having a three-year law course for applicants. The other recommendation of the committee was embodied in the Legislative committee's report, this being that a board of legal examiners be created.

Progress Proverbially Slow.

"The progress of law reform is proverbially slow," said Hon. George William Smith, of Philadelphia, in an instructive address last night before the Bar Association on "Uniform Commercial Laws." "Although the cause which led to the adoption of the Federal Constitution can be traced to the intolerable business conditions which were developing among the different states by reason of their separate sovereignty, there yet remain after that instrument has been in force since 1789, and notwithstanding the elasticity of its commerce clause, evils that cry for abatement. State lines have long since ceased to be the barriers of business activities, but the problem of assimilating the law merchant has yet to be entirely solved.

"The attention of the profession has been but gradually awakened to the success of the plan originated by the American Bar Association, and formulated by the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. After many years of patient effort, uniform statutes have been adopted in many states. The negotiable instruments, sales stock, transfer, warehouse receipts, bills of lading and partnership acts have brought substantial uniformity among the states which have adopted them.

"The negotiable instruments acts is now the law in almost all of the states and each year sees the steady progress of the others. When it is considered that these acts are but suggested to the legislature without any other sanction than their own excellence, the favor which they have met is most gratifying and proves the wisdom of the minds which conceived and brought them into being. They are free from the objections properly leveled at ideal reforms of the law, for they but embody in the short and succinct language of a statute the principles settled by generations of painful and expensive experience."

The speaker explained how the same general observations which he had made of the progress of law reform in America applied also in England and traced at considerable length the growth of the law merchant in that country.

Need of Simplicity.

"Political and social economists are agreed that commerce is a great civilizing influence," said Mr. Smith, "and any unnecessary fetters upon it obviously unwise. It is but natural, therefore, that as modern commercial development imposed upon the English courts the necessity for establishing a new system of mercantile law, or rather, assimilating an old system to new social conditions, the tendency of the judicial mind lay in the direction of simplifying and rationalizing the law governng commercial instruments and all cognate subjects.

"Lawyers of the present generation have lost the feeling of almost blind conservatism which was imbibed from their early studies of Blackstone, but are firm in their conviction that in the main the system of precedent cannot give place to a general codification of the law. Such a work is too great to be successfully accomplished, and if it were, the danger of rigid rules and definitions binding future transactions, to meet the infinite combinations which no human foresight can provide for, is too formidable."

Mr. Smith in his address outlined at length the work that has been accomplished in the several states of the American union towards unifying and codifying the laws relating to commercial affairs.

"It may be believed by many of these who have taken the pains to study the learning which has accumulated in the works of the codifiers and the anti-codifiers," he pointed out, "that the safe course is that which the American Bar Association and which Judge Dillon has outlined, neither to reject the ancient system of case-law in its entirety nor to refuse the advantages of partial codification."

Address by Mr. Burton.

"The best thing the Bar of this State can do in this day is to unselfishly reconsecrate itself to the great service that at the outset called it into being, has maintained it in its career and must justify it in the future," declared Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Winston-Salem, in his address, which was the feature of the morning session of the Bar Association yesterday. This service, he pointed out, must be that of defending and protecting those individual and property rights under the law which express the freedom of the people.

All over this land there are devoted men, fully awakened to the responsibility of seeing that constitutional government shall not perish from this earth, the speaker continued, and chief among the institutions that must be preserved, constituting, as they do, the very heart and life blood of the American system, are capable, efficient and trustworthy courts of law. Confidence in the courts is as necessary to their life as confidence in a man's character is to his worth and usefulness.

The speaker condemned certain practices which he felt are wrong and are increasing more than they should. It is almost self-evident that the profession in North Carolina, he declared, has been drifting away from the old moorings and a goodly portion of it is rapidly becoming commercialized. Lawyers in many instances seek clients instead of clients seeking them. The broker who buys and sells lawsuits is becoming an established institution.

Danger to Society.

"I can conceive of no more dangerous enemy to society than the lawyer who makes it his business to interfere with the full freedom of settlement," Mr. Buxton declared, "and who uses the court in his own and not his client's interest." He urged that the State Bar Association should have full power to deal with unworthy members of the Bar, whether members of the association or not. Of all known occupations that of the lawyer is of the greatest dignity and of the most importance, he stated. The history of the legal profession is but the history of civil liberty.

The need of strong courts and the speedy, economical and uniform administration of justice at this time is even greater, if possible, than in John Marshall's day, declared the speaker. His people were disciplined by war, privation, provincial simplicity and a high standard of ethical service. They possessed a reverence for government and an innate faith in and respect for courts that made of a judgeship the highest honor in the gift of the people.

"Nothing can be more deplorable," the speaker declared, "than that open criticism of the decisions of courts which, all at once, has become fashionable. They are danger signals, and failure to see them may introduce practices which will threaten the independence of the courts. If their decrees are not respected or the judges who preside over them are not men of the highest reputation for ability and fairness then all the forces of discontent will unite in an assault upon them."

Need Higher Standards.

Mr. Buxton pleaded for a revival of the old-time faith in the courts but declared that he did not want to be understood as criticising the district judges but he did feel that the standard of admission to the bar and the preparation in the way of education and necessary culture and refinement must be increased and broadened in North Carolina, if we are to retain the class of most of the judges who are now presiding in the courts of the State.

Mr. Buxton made a strong plea for the establishment of a board of examiners which shall relieve the State Supreme Court of the burden of examining applicants to practice law and declared that it would be a great day for the progression when the examination included not only the law but the general educational equipment of the applicant for license.

"In the election of judges, if we are to keep our standards as high as they have been," Mr. Buxton explained, "or as they are for the most part now, we must understand that we must have personal efficiency, if we expect to make progress in the right direction. No matter how much salary may be raised, competent lawyers as a rule may not become candidates under present conditions, requiring a personal canvass, where all semblance of judicial dignity at least obscured, if not destroyed, and where security of tenure is understood to depend mainly on successfully playing the game of petty politics.

"In my judgment, unless in some way conditions can be so restored that the office will seek the man, our judicial administration will begin to degenerate. Nevertheless, I look hopefully to the future. In science, in art, in manufacturing, in commerce, in education, and lately even in agriculture, we have come to realize the necessity for expert direction. To some extent this necessity is beginning to be recognized in municipal administration, but as a general rule we do not yet fully recognize the necessity for experts in public service."

High Point, June 28.—William Spencer, a negro, was arreste dhere last night on a charge of having killed three men in Rawley county, W. Va., in a riot on June 7. A reward of $1,500 was offered for his arrest.

Too Much Work; Too Little Exercise; Liver Not Acting?

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Before Breakfast Cleans the Liver and Bowels. Makes You Feel Fine in Thirty Minutes

How do you feel right now? Is your tongue coated and is your head heavy and dull? Do you have stomach trouble and are you tired and listless? All these things mean a clogged liver.

Concentrated Tollo Water from Dawson Springs, Kentucky, will relieve your clogged liver, really give it a bath, flushing and emptying every tiny bile tube and start you feeling fine in thirty minutes. It gives you relief when drugs have failed; brings about natural action of the liver and bowels, cleaning out the clogged bile ducts and removing all the poisonous waste matter from the system.

Your habits of life—too little exercise, too much work, lots of rich food—require an occasional liver bath to remove the obstructions from the bile tubes an dkeep your liver, stomach and bowels clean and healthy.

Get a 15-cent bottle of Tollo Water from your druggist. Before breakfast take about a third of a tumbler full in a glass of drinking water. In thirty minutes it will clean out the liver and stimulate the flow of bile, which is nature's only laxative. You will at once have a clear head and a feeling of energy and ambition that will surprise and delight you. Keep taking it for a few days and your usual good health and color will return. After that an occasional wineglassful before breakfast will keep your liver active and your bowels regular.

GARCIA ASSERTS HE FEELS SAFER IN TOWN OF JUAREZ

El Paso, June 28.—Andres Garcia, Mexican consul to El Paso, tonight issued a statement in which he explained that his reason for remaining in Juarez during the crisis was to avoid every possible chance of friction. He admitted, however, that he felt safer in the Mexican town.

"General Bell," he said, "has offered to put a guard about my house in El Paso and I have full confidence in the American authorities, but since I was routed out of bed and insulted in my own house not long ago, by a squad of police at 1 o'clock in the morning, I have feared that my presence in El Paso might start trouble. Every effort of mine is bent on removing causes of friction at this point with a view to easing negotiations between the first chief and the White House."

Reports from the field indicate that small columns of Carranzistas are appearing to the south of General Pershing's line, occupying communities evacuated by the Americans. However, in Mexican circles, it is explained that some of these troops are returning detachments. American reports indicate that at no point are they sufficiently close to Pershing's line to cause alarm.

Five Facts You Should Know

(1) That disease is the result of a disordered condition.

(2) That when we correct the disordered condition, we eliminate the disease.

(3) That the blood is the carrier of poisons throughout the body.

(4) That to successfully treat any disease originating in the blood, we have to treat the blood, as the cause.

(5) That S. S. S. is the most reliable remedy for removing impurities from the blood.

USED FOR 50 YEARS SUCCESSFULLY

S. S. S. is no experiment of today, but is a successful remedy for the blood that has been a blessing to thousands of sufferers for the last fifty years. There is nothing mysterious about S. S. S. It is an extract from native herbs, roots and bark, each known for its peculiar medicinal value. These ingredients combine and act in a beneficial and helpful way with nature. It doesn't matter whether your case of blood trouble is one of the many forms of Rheumatism, or Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, chronic skin trouble, or any other form of blood trouble. S. S. S. will go directly to the seat of the trouble; giving the blood a thorough cleansing, driving out the impurities in a natural way, and leaving the blood pure and refreshed, ready to do its full duty in building the tissues up to a normal and healthy state. Begin today on a bottle of S. S. S. and note how soon you will begin to feel relief. We will gladly give special advice and free consultation. THEATRICAL

Owen Johnson's world-famous novel, "The Salamander" was sought by every producer of feature motion pictures in America, before B. S. Moss offered the highest bid and knocked it down for production. The result is a marvelous six- act photoplay achievement that seldom comes to the average photoplay theatre.

Starring in this super-production is that accomplished and brilliant star, Ruth Findlay, one of the most beautiful women who ever appeared on the stage, and she is surrounded by a great cast of stars of brilliance exceeding any past motion picture production of the year.

"The Salamander" in book form, it is estimated, has been read by ten million people. It was the best seller of two years ago and continues to lead in all book stands. As a film production, it has already created a sensation in the larger cities, and all metropolitan critics were loud in their praise of it.

"The Salamander" depicting the heart touching fight of a young girl against the wolves of a big city, is one of the strongest pieces of modern literature. And in the film version, embellished with realistic locations and scenes, it has been made a thing of beauty and love. Teeming with beautiful and inspiring scenes of an allegorical nature, Graecian dances and other spectacular effects, it will undoubtedly be one of the biggest hits of the year at the Royal today.

A Scene from "The Salamander" Today's Extraordinary Feature at the Royal

At the Bijou Today.

The most refreshing and enjoyable drama of the summer is today's big headliner at the Bijou, a rousing two-reel Rex. drama of the North, "The Sheriff of Pine Mountain," starring Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips.

Ben is always there when it comes to the red-blooded, rugged, manly stuff, and you will all be glad to revel in this picture of the Northern snows on this hot June day. Beautiful scenery of the great North-Canadian woods adds mightily to the enjoyment of this film drama, which is from the pen of William Addison Lathrop, and is one of the tensest stories made into a film during the year.

"The Sheriff of Pine Mountain" while it is a story of mistaken identity, is worked up in a new and novel manner that makes it one of the most thoroughly original and refreshing screen dramas you have ever witnessed Chief among the supporting cast is William Courtleigh, Jr., who played "Neal" in "Neal of the Navy," also Lettie Ford, Jeannette Rutland, Charles Ogle and Joseph W. Girard.

Rupert Julian and Elsie Jane Wilson appear in a strong single reel dramatic feature, "The False Gem," a story with an unexpected climax.

Then comes a big Nestor, the first one of the week, "Twixt Love and the Iceman," with Billie Rhodes and Neal Burns doing the leads.

Pasquale at Grand Today.

Failure of films to arrive on time yesterday necessitated a change in programmes whereby "The Pawns of Fate," formerly booked for presentation at the Grand today, was presented at the Royal yesterday. Therefore Grand patrons get the advantage of the change today when that great Paramount production, "Pasquale," starring George Beban and Myrtle Stedman, will be presented in place of the other.

George Beban never produced a feature in which he showed up to a better advantage than he goes in this great Paramount feature—one of the biggest releases of the year. In the interpretation of an Italian role, Mr. Beban is at his best, as it was in "The Italian" and "An Alien" that he first gained world-wide fame for his character interpretations.

Beautiful Myrtle Stedman playing opposite Mr. Beban furnishes a pair which is absolutely unbeatable. Miss Stedman is known as "the American Beauty" and is one of the most beautiful women on the screen. In "Pasquale" at the Grand today, she will be seen in a strong dramatic emotional role in which she excels all her past performances.

"One Day" Coming.

The most sensational, startling and fascinating film drama ever shown in Wilmington, is "One Day," that modern romance of a burning, resistless love, written by Elinor Glyn as a sequel to her "Three Weeks" which comes to the Royal in film form on next Saturday in six spectacular reels of action, tense and teeming with brilliant scenes and startling fascinating action. Splendidly staged, brilliantly acted by a great all-star cast, it promises to be the big sensation of the year.

Millions of people have read the book and thousands have seen the play on the stage. At its initial presentation at the Regent theatre, in New York city, it was an instananeous success and ran for a long season, press and public according it the highest praise.

Jeanne Iver, who plays the leading role of Opal, brings to the picture winsome beauty, compelling personality and superb acting and make of it a distinctive success. Supporting her is a brilliant array of talent, the greatest ever seen in a similar play, which includes Victor Southerland, Barclay Baker, Robert Broderick, Hal Clarendon, Richard Ross and William Betchel.

DR. McGLOTHLIN LECTURES

Noted Baptist Minister Delights His Hearers at Wallace.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wallace, N. C., June 28.—Seldom has it been the pleasure and privilege of any people to enjoy such lectures as the four delivered Saturday and Sunday, by Rev. W. J. McGlothlin, Ph.D., D. D., LL. D., of the Baptist Seminary, of Louisville, Ky. His subjects were "The History of the Primitive Churches," "Rise of the Roman Catholic Church," "Reformation and History of the Protestant Churches," and "History of the Baptist Church."

The love, sympathy and fellowship of the ministers and other church members which have knit the churches in Wallace so closely together, were demonstrated in the audiences.

The lectures were all delivered with a passionate earnestness, which seemed to be a part of this great man. His beautiful voice, so well modulated, thrilled his hearers.

As a man Dr. McGlothlin is gentle and conscientious, of broadest views, and most charitable always. As a scholar, his rare intellectual gifts, extensive reading and travels have won for him distinction in the world of Theology and Church History. His lectures here were characterized by clearness of presentation, fullness of knowledge and firm grasp of his subjects. He is a recognized power in his denomination, and one of which it can justly be proud.

All Wallace, and community, have beee clearly drawn to Dr. McGlothlin, by his endearing qualities; he truly reached the hearts of this people.

TEACHERS INSTITUTES FOR BOTH RACES IN BRUNSWICK

For White Teachers Beginning August 7; Colored, July 10.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., June 28.—On the second Monday in July, the 10th, a two weeks' institute for colored teachers will be opened here, conducted by Prof. C. Dillard and his wife, of Goldsboro.

This institute is jointly for the teachers of Brunswick and Columbus counties, the institute being held at Whiteville two years ago.

On Monday, August 7, the institute for white teachers will open for two weeks sessions, at this place, for all teachers of Brunswick county, which will be in charge of Mr. R. E. Ranson, assisted by Mrs. L. J. Stevens.

These institutes must be regularly attended, according to law, by all who teach or who expect to teach in the county schools.

The fishing smack, Austin, has been stripped of everything that could be taken off, about enough to fill a freight car, and this has been loaded and shipped by rail to Philadelphia.

Cleveland, June 28.—The field in the championship of the National Clay Tennis tournament being held here was narrowed to four players today when Willis E. Davis, a San Francisco student at the University of Pennsylvania defeated Walter B. Knox, of the Princeton University 'varsity team, 6-3, 8-6 in the fifth round.

DOCTORS USING AMOLOX WITH GREAT SUCCESS

This remarkable letter, coming from a prominent physicion engaged in active practice for over 25 years, proves the merit of this wonderful new Remedy.

I have used Amolox in four different cases with excellent results. All showed marked improvement from the start. Two apparently are cured, the skin being free from scales and redness, and perfectly normal.

I consider Amolox a Remedy of rare merit. I know of nothing in the modern text-books that equals it in therapeutic value.

H. R. Hills, M. D., Youngstown, O.

Pimples on the face, Blackheads, Acne and all minor skin troubles yield quickly to the use of the Amolox Ointment. Sufferers of Eczema, Psoriasis, Tetter, Salt Rheum, and bad chronic cases of skin diseases lasting for years, should use both the Ointment and Solution, to effect a cure. Trial size, 50c. Guaranteed and recommended by Rob't R. Bellamy.

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

COTTON GAINS SLIGHTLY

Market Still Somewhat Nervous and Unsettled Showed Better Tendency—Gain of 3 to 10 Points.

New York, June 28.—The cotton market was still somewhat nervous and unsettled today but prices showed a tendency to do better after yesterday's active liquidation and an opening decline was followed by rallies. October sold up from 13.11 to 13.22 and closed at 13.19, with the general list closing stead yat a net advance of 3 to 10 points for the day. Trading in July was less active with the price relatively steady.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 points to a decline of 1 point, October being higher in sympathy with relatively steady cables, while later deliveries felt the influence of renewed liquidation. Active months worked about 2 to 5 points net lower shortly after the call but steadied on covering and buying for a reaction which carried those positions about 5 to 11 points net higher, with July selling at 13.06 and December at 13.37, or 10 to 13 points above the low level of the morning. The weekly report of the weather bureau was more favorable than expected and served to check the buying movement, with the result that prices eased off 3 qr 4 points from the best during the early afternoon.

Offerings did not become active, however, and closing prices were within 2 or 3 points of the best on most positions.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, June 28 — Government requisitions for dry goods supplies tended to stiffen the markets today, army duck discounts having been shortened to ten off the list. Yarns were firm. Laces and embroideries were dull.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Prices Fluctuate Lazily in Narrow Limits—Small Advance.

New Orleans, June 28.—Cotton fluctuated lazily within comparatively norrow limits today, a small rise around the opening being followed by a small decline. The net change for the session was a rise of 1 to 3 points. Considerable evening up was doing for both accounts.

On opening the new crop months rose 5 to 6 points, while July was held down for a slight depression. Cables were better than due, but after the call the market turned soft under liquidation and promise of weather conditions, and fell to a decline of 7 to 11 points. The weekly weather reports were hardly as favorable as expected and the mention of boll weevil damage in some sections, together with accounts of grassy fields in others, led to covering which by noon brought the market 10 points up from the bottom. At the best July was 2 points over yesterday's close and the new crop months were 6 to 7 up. In the afternoon the market was steady but dull and prices barely moved.

The close was steady: July 12.95; October 13.06; December 13.18; January 13.27; March 13.46.

Spot cotton steady, unchanged; sales on the spot 1,160 bales; to arrive 40 bales; middling 13.06.

GROUND IS LOST IN STOCKS

Trading Apathetic After the First Hour the List Sagging Slowly During Most of Session.

New York, June 28.—Much of the ground recovered yesterday from Monday's weak stock market was surrendered today and in some instances more besides. Trading was apathetic, except for the first hour, and during most of the session the list sagged slowly, prices yielding more from sheer inertia than actual liquidation. Short covering effected rallies of one to two points in some of the more speculative leaders just before the close.

The Mexican situation was again the overshadowing feature, and encouraging developments were ignored in the apprehension created by the paramount issue of the day. Mexican Petroleum recovered an extreme loss of four at 88 5-8, a shrinkage of 17 points in the past fortnight. American smelting lost two points and Greene Cananea Copper made an advance of more than a point.

Motor stocks, the prominent Industrails and equipments, as well as mumitions, with few exceptions, were one to three points lower or comparatively light offerings, but coppers and shipping issues were firm when not subject to pressure.

Rails afforded the basis of early stability, such issues as Reading and Union Pacific showing some strength, with an advance of 1 1-4 points in New York, Ontario and Western. Postponement of action on the common dividend of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis (Panhandle) road, caused a break of five points in the final dealings.

Total sales, 345,000 shares.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value, $2,280,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call, but sales of coupon 3's and registered four's were made at declines of one-half and 3-4 per cent. respectively.

GUARDSMEN'S FAMILIES ARE TO GET NO RELIEF

Provision is Eliminated From the Federal Draft Resolution.

Agreement Reached Between Senate and House Conferees—Baker Urges Early Passage of the Draft Resolution.

Washington, June 28.—An agreement under which the army draft resolution will be put through without any provision for relief of dependant families of National Guardsmen drafted into the Federal service, was reported late today by House and Senate leaders. A conference report eliminating entirely the relief proposal on which the conferees had split was approved by the House without opposition just before adjournment and is expected to be accepted by the Senate tomorrow.

In submitting the conference report to the House Chairman Hay, of the Military committee, said the House conferees had consented to sacrifice their $1,000,000 relief proposal only after Secretary Baker had telephoned to the Capitol that immediate passage of the resolution in some form was imperative. Mr. Hay announced he would introduce the appropriation section tomorrow as a separte bill, and Speaker Clark sai dhe would entertain a motion Monday for passage of the measure under a suspension of rules.

As finally agreed to, the resolution is in virtually the same form as drafted at the War Department. It authorizes the President to use as Federal soldiers all members of the National Guard willing to take the required oath for Federal service and permits consolidation of scattered and incomplete guard units.

painted its name in letters approximately six feet long and the name of the sailing port, and as previously made known to Austro-Hungarian government, the steamer carried two large flags some distance above the water line which it is positively stated by the officers and crew were flying before the first shot was fired and were not hoisted after the first shot, as stated by the submarine commander."

Not Headed Towards U-Boat.

An examination of the steamer by an examiner of the United States Navy shows that one of the last shots to hit was fired from a point 45 degrees on the starboard bow, which indicates the ship was not headed toward the submarine, even when the latter ceased firing. About 12 shots in all were fired, and one seaman was severely wounded by a shell fragment. The engines and the funnel of the Petrolite were at the stern and no experienced naval officer could have believed it had the opportunity or the speed to attack the submarine, which was two miles away. The memorandum states that the conduct of the submarine commander showed lack of judgment, self-control or wilful intent, amounting to utter disregard of the rights of a neutral.

"The captain of the steamer swears that he informed the commander of the submarine that he had only sufficient provisions to reach the port of Algiers, and that he would deliver provisions only under compulsion," it continues.

"He states * * * that he refused payment because he felt that he was being compelled to deliver food in violation of law. The statement of the captain of the Petrolite is entirely at variance with the report of the submarine commander.

Seaman Held as Hostage.

"The correctness of the captain's opinion that the wounded seaman was held as a hostage to guarantee the delivery of food seems clear. Obviously the commander of the submarine had no right to order the seaman to remain on board. The fact that this order was given showed that the commander insisted that good was to be delivered to him, otherwise the seaman would naturally have accompanied the captain back to his vessel. The outrageous conduct of the submarine commander and all the circumstances of the attack on the Petrolite warranted the captain in regarding himself as being compelled in order to avoid further violence, to deliver food to the commander of the submarine.

A Deliberate Insult.

"In the absence of other and more satisfactory explanation of the attack on the steamer than that contained in the note addressed to you by the foreign office, the government of the United States is compelled to regard the conduct of the commander of the submarine in attacking the Petrolite and in coercing the captain as a deliberate insult to the flag of the United States and an invasion of the rights of American citizens for which this government requests that an apology be made; that the commander of the submarine be punished, and that reparation be made for the injuries sustained by the payment of a suitable indemnity."

WESTERN PACIFIC SOLD

Reorganization Committee Buys the Railroad Property for $18,000,000.

Oakland, Cal., June 28.—The Western Pacific Railroad was sold to the reorganization committee of the road here today for $18,000,000 at a public auction.

The sale was conducted under the orders of the United States District court. The $18,000,000 paid for the Western Pacific was the minimum price fixed by the court and paid in first mortgage bonds turned into the reorganization committee by their holders to forward reorganization.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 28.—James Simpson, a professional from Milwaukee, led the players in the second day's qualifying round of the National open golf championship here today, and but for a lost ball in the second round would probably have broken the Minikahda course record of 70. His card was 73-144 for the two rounds.

A quiet Fourth at Carolina Beach. Steamer Wilmington leaves at 9:00 and 2:30.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ORPET NOT COMPLETED

Again Questioned About Meeting Miss Lambert on Fatal Day.

Tells of How He Left Madison, Wis., for Lake Forest to See Her—Slept in Garage to Keep Father From Knowing It.

Waukegan, Ill., June 28.—Wm. H. Orpet, the University of Wisconsin student on trial for the murder of Marion Lambert, withstood the ordeal of cross examination today better than any of the preceding days of his interrogation. Only once did he show any hesitancy in his replies.

He had testified previously that when he turned back in Helm's wood and saw the girl in her dying throes he knelt beside her and noticed traces of powder in the palm of her right hand. Today the prosecutor again questioned the witness about the meeting in the woods and asked:

"Was her hand bare or gloved?"

"I think it was bare—no it was gloved."

Prosecutor Poslyn was in the midst of another question remote from his preceding line when the witness interrupted: "No; her hand was bare. I remember now; it was bare."

The contention of the student's attorney is that the high school girl committed suicide by taking poison in a powder. The state contends that the poison was administered in liquid form and that as no container (alleged to have been a 2-ounce bottle) was ever found, Orpet made way with it.

The cross examination of Orpet will be continued tomorrow.

The witness today, in answer to questions, repeated the story of how he had left Madison, Wis., for Lake Forest, where he and Marion lived, early on the afternoon of February 8. Not wishing to be seen by his father, he slept in the garage on the McCormick, estate, of which his father was superintendent. Attorney Joslyn, asked Marion said when Orpet telephoned her on his arrival in Lake Forest.

"I asked her if she couldn't come out. She said no, that Jo Davis was there."

"Now is that all you can recollect?"

"I asked her if I could see her at the Sacred Heart Station in the morning. She said 'yes.'"

"Was anything said about bringing down any dope for her?"

"I may have, but I don't remember."

"Now was it before or after the hope was mentioned that you asked to see her?"

"Probably before, if any mention of dope was made."

The witness' previous story of leaving the garage in the morning and going to Helms' wood, to await the coming of Marion was not changed on cross-examination.

The witness said that looking towards the edge of Helm's woods, he saw Marion Lambert, Josephine Davis and Verne Jackson on the interurban platform. Miss Jackson is the school girl, who, after Marion's body was found, reported that she saw a man in the woods, but did not recognize him. The witness said that he concealed himself behind a large tree.

Verne and Josephine took the train to school and Marion remained behind.

"I then came from the woods and met her on the platform," said the witness.

They proceeded through the snow to a log over a little ravine. Orpet brushed the snow from the log and Marion sat down. Orpet took a seat on the ground at a right angle to her. The witness repeated his direct testimony as to their conversation which in part dealt with her condition and Orpet's endeavors to reassure her.

Marion was sullen, the witness said, as soon as the subject of her condition came up. He could not recollect details of their conversation.

ing in seats when he declared that if the civil government would not protect a people their ultimate course was lost, and with arms in hand. Sir Roger Casement, he maintained, was working for the interests of Ireland. "If his object was that after the war the men should take up arms for the purpose of protecting the rights of the people of Ireland against unlawful tyranny," argued the attorney, "this was no treason."

Sir Roger read his statement to the jury in a clear voice but his hands trembled violently and he was evidently under a great nervous strain. The statement said:

Sir Roger's Statement.

"My Lords and Gentlemen of the Jury—I desire to say a few words only with reference to some alusion made by the prosecution.

"As to my pension and the honor of knighthood conferred upon me, I shall say one word only. The pension I had earned by service rendered and it was assigned by law. The knighthood it was not in my power to refuse.

"But there are in especial four misstatements given in the evidence against me which I must refute. First, I never at any time advised Irishmen to fight with the Turks against the Russians or to fight with the Germans on the western front. Second, I never asked an Irishman to fight for Germany. I have always claimed that he has no right to fight for any land but Ireland. Third, the horrible insinuations that I got my own people's rations reduced to the starvation point because they did not join the Irish brigade is an abminable falsehood. The rations were necessarily reduced throughout Germany, owing to the blockade, and they were reduced for the Irish prisoners at exactly the same time and to the same extent as for the German soldiers and the entire population of Germany.

"Fourth, gentlemen, there is the widespread imputation of 'German gold.' I owe it to those in Ireland who are assailed with me on this very ground to nail the lie once and for all. * * * I have never sold myself to any man or any government and have never allowed any government to use me. From the first moment that I landed on the continent until I came home again to Ireland I never asked or accepted a single penny of foreign money, either for myself or for any Irish cause, or for any purposes whatsoever.

"Money was offered to me in Germany more than once, and offered liberally and unconditionally, but I rejected every suggestion of the kind and I left Germany a poorer man than when I entered it. * * *

"I must say categorically that the rebellion was not made in Germany, that it was not directed from Germany, that it was not inspired from Germany and that not one penny of German gold went to finance or assist it."

BROWN MEETING IN LUMBERTON.

Largest Political Gathering There in a Long Time.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 28. — The Joe Brown Club meeting held here tonight was the largest political gathering seen here in a long time, and everything went off peaceably and in order. In the absence of President R. D. Caldwell, Vice-President K. M. Barnes presided. Mr. Brown was introduced by Mr. H. E. Stacy in a short and concise speech. Mr. Brown's speech was brimful of information and won for him many new friends. Other speakers were Messrs. J. P. Russell, W. S. Butler, J. E. Carlyle, Fred Brown and W. K. Bethune, manager of Godwin's campaign in Robeson.

Two automobiles filled with Godwin boosters passed through here about noon going on a tour of the county. Banners on the cars proclaimed that Godwin would carry Harnett. J. C. Clifford, Esq., of Dunn, was in the party.

Mr. Bethune's speech was the incident of the meeting, and reminded your correspondent of the words of a convert He compared Mr. Brown to William Jennings Bryan, and said he was the noblest Roman of them all. He added that if Mr. Brown, of Columbus, were nominated, he would be the first man to give him his vote in the November election. Although manager for Mr. Godwin, there were those who said that Mr. Bethune, by his speech, made votes for Mr. Brown. W. S. W.

WAR DOG DECORATED

France Confers Upon Them the "Collars of Honor."

(From the Washington Post.)

Several dogs, who have been aiding the French army at the front during the war, recently were decorated with special "collars of honor," at a meeting of the Animal protective society, held in the Trocadero, Paris.

The dogs were applauded as they appeared on the stage to receive these marks of distinction.

Among them were Fend l'Air, who saved his master, Jacquemin, a Zouave, at Rochlincourt; Louistic, who rendered very many valuable services, and Pyremus, who saved a battalion by barking, warning the soldiers of the approach of the enemy, and carrying back to the generals in the rear a note announcing the advance of enemy forces. The dogs seemed to display human inteligence at the presentation

THE FARMERS ARE FOR GODWIN.

Interesting Interview With Prominent Planter.

Among Congressman Hannibal L. Godwin's strong supporters, you will find none more staunch than the farmers of New Hanover county, as is evidenced by the following interview with one of our most prominent planters.

"Well," said our friend, "you just can't please everybody; you remember, our Lord himself, could not do that when He was on earth, so you would not expect Mr. Godwin to do so. There are always a few sore backs who will grumble no matter how much is done for them.

"I have noticed among other charges brought against Godwin, there is one in which they claim he did not vote for an appropriation for good roads. If you will just take the trouble to look this matter up in the Congressional Record you will find, on page 3595, of the 1914 session, that he made a strong speech in favor of good roads, and gave the bill support. Unfortunately, the bill came up for final passage while he was at Dunn, North Carolina, attending the funeral of his mother; therefore, it was impossible for him to be in Congress. Again, on January 25th, 1916, a good roads bill came up in the House of Representatives, and we find Congressman Godwin supported this bill, which carried an appropriation of $25,000,000.

"Again, we find, according to figures compiled by our Government, that Mr. Godwin has secured about $10,000 during the year, to be used in farm demonstration and extension work in the Sixth District, in connection with our State Board of Agriculture, and our State Agricultural College. There are now one hundred and twenty-five Rural Mail Routes in our District, serving according to government figures, more than one hundred and six thousand people, and paying annually to mail carriers over one hundred and forty thousand dollars. Nearly all of these have been gotten by Mr. Godwin, since the beginning of his services in Congress. Some people have criticised him for sending out samples of seed—We farmers are always glad to get them. They are produced by the government at quite a little expense, and if they have been proven to be good, why should we not get the benefit of them? We would not think he was doing his duty, if he failed to look out for our interests.

"There are many other reasons why the farmers expect to support Congressman Hannibal L. Godwin for renomination, but these should be sufficient to convince a reasonable man. To the 'sore-backs', we can only say, brother, open your eyes, for there is none so blind, as him who will not see."
